BROADVIEW BOYS' FAIR WILL COMMENCE TODAY

Broadview boys' annual fall fair opens today for the seventeenth successive year at the Broadview Y.M.C.A. The fair, which is the largest boys' fall fair in the world, will keep open for the next three days and close on Saturday.

The planning and promotion of the fair is entirely in the hands of a board of directors, composed of boys under millitary age. This year is called "S.O.S. year," and an attractive daily program of special features has been arranged.

ARRANGE ANNIVERSARIES

The quarterly meeting of the Toronto end of the main bridge is now bent and ready to place.

The concrete bed on the roadway south of the track allowance, between the Rosedale and main bridges, is now being placed and should be completed by Monday. The asphalt surface will be laid immediately on completion of the concrete bed.

The concrete bed on the north side of the main section was started on Monday and good progress made. The cross arms on the poles on the approach to the main bridge are now being fixed.
