REPRESENTATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY

OFFICES:

Street. nade, foot of West Market St. rst Street, nearly opp. Front, Avenue, at G.T.R. Crossing onge Street, at C.P.R.Crossing treet East. re Street. esley Street.

padina Avenue and College n Street West.

DOCKS: Church Street. and Dupont Streets.

Queen Street West.

EAST. TELEPHONE 131

& CO., d Wood Merchants,

NADA. telephone 132; Princess Street, telephone 139; 426½ Yonge St., none 134.

Best Long Hardwood $6.00 Per Cord. Cut and Split $6.50. No. 2 Long Wood $4.50. No. 2 Cut and Split $5.00. Coal at Lowest Prices. Head Office and Yard: Cor Bathurst and Farley-Ave

R BATHROOM be-convenient should be fitted our nickel-plated

INGS

need Sponge Holders, Comb and ush Holders, Towel Racks, Tooth ash Holders, Robe Hooks, Toilet er Racks, Cigar Rests, Match

LEWIS & SON LIMITED

IR GERM-PROOF FILTERS

application. KENHEAD HARDWARE CO. ELAIDE-STREET EAST.

AGENTS.

INVESTORS

TWENTY-FIRST YLA LONG LONG

The Toronto World.

EIGHT PAGES-FRIDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 23 1900-EIGHT PAGES

Maltese Cross Rubbers

Head Office and Warerooms, 61-63 Front St. W

ONE CENT

GEN. CRONJE IS NOW MAKING HIS LAST STAND DYING HARD, HEMMED IN BY BRITISH INFANTRY

All the While Shells From Fifty Guns Are Falling Into the Boer Camp—It is to Be a Fight to the Finish or Unconditional Surrender.

Boers Asked for an Armistice, but Lord Kitchener Said "No"-Cronje's Situation Desperate-Both Forces Concentrating-British Losses at Koodoosrand Were 700—London Times Says Great Britain is Now Stronger Than Ever.

London, Feb. 23.—(4 a.m.)—Gen. Cronje is are rapidly drawing together to attack 50 guns pouring lead into the Boer camp. captured, and also a handkerchief inscribed despatch from Paardeberg, dated Wedness seemingly making his last stand. He is Lord Roberts.

chief asked for an armistice to bury his tish are expected to give them the advandead. "Fight to a finish or surrender un- tage. conditionally," was Lord Kitchener's re-

Gen. Cronje immediately sent back word that his request for a truce had been misunderstood, and that his determination then, as before, was to fight to the death, The battle went on. This was the situasketched in the scanty telegrams that have emerged from the semi-silence of South prisoners. The Reinforcements Scattered.

Officially, Lord Roberts wires that he has scattered the advance commandoes of the ments that were striving to reach for South Africa to-day. Gen. Cronje. It is regarded as singular that Lord Roberts, wiring Wednesday, is likened to chess players, one of whom, should not mention the appeal for an armis- from time to time, adds pieces to the board, tice on the previous day and also that the while any loss to the adversary is irreplac War Office should withhold good news, if able.

Cronje's Position Desperate. Without trying to reconcile even the spatch to the Ea scanty materials at hand, it seems plain Governor-General that Gen. Cronje is in a bad and even a desperate situation, and that the British are pressing their advantage.

west by the British infantry.

is somewhat difficult to explain the Cronje, under difficult conditions, managed to hold his own. On Saturday night the British Mounted Infantry came into touch with Cronje's rear guard, driving them back upon the main body. On Sunday morning the action was renewed, but the Boers, who had entrenched the river bed

during the night, prevented a further advance of the mounted infantry in this direc-

They Enveloped the Boers.

Meanwhile the Highland Brigade, consisting of the Seaforths, the Black Watch and Firing Became Heavy.

with the other regiments, swung round the front of the Highland Brigade on the level.

the day. This began at 7.30 in the morning.

In Front of Cronje's Laager.

Relsh regiment having succeeded in seizing the drift, thus closing in the Boers, who

The Canadians Brought in.

attempt to charge into the laager, but fail-

BOER FORCES ARE IN A

Cronje's Retreat Likely to End in Disaster for Him-

Canadians Attempted to Charge His Laager.

But Failed.

Paardeberg Drift, Orange Free State, running down the river. Therefore their part of the retreating foe. The tired and thing it contained. One shell set on fire a

It is somewhat difficult to explain the Sunday action, in which all the British considerable distance far into the night.

canced partly up the river bed and partly Infantre manoeuvred on the right front and coverless ground, exposed to a terrible fire.

The British main body advanced to outflow flank the Boers' larger on the north bank which obliged the men to lie upon the of the river. Gen. Kelly-Kenny having derstorm our men hung to the position, an- Knox's Brigade on the centre and right, swering the Boer fire and shooting steadily. while Gen. Smith-Dorrien's Brigade crossed fought thruout with splendld courage. Gen, the British losses were heavy. The battle in the open, while the rest of the brigade, flank of the Boers.

Thru the dreadful heat and terrible thau- Highland Brigade on the left and Gen.

completed the enveloping movement, the the ground is level.

artillery and the crackling rifle fire.

Modder River-How the Canadians Were Killed.

doosrand. The drift action began at day-

To Outflank the Boers.

enclosed, and ordered an attack, with the

the river and advanced along the north

British Losses Heavy.

appears likely to end in disaster. The main probably one or two other guns.

Can Crouje Hold Out?
Will Gen. Crouje be able to hold out unt the Boer masses appear, or if he does, will they then be able to succor him? The Bri- of the action. tish are facing the Boers on grounds where the arms, tactles and training of the Bri-

Gen. Buller, according to a despatch from Chieveley, dated Wednesday, finds the Boers in positions north of the Tugela, largely re-British Losses 11,208 to Feb. 17. The War Office, for the first time, has

Strange News From Buller,

tion of Gen. Cronje Tuesday evening, as 17. This does not include, therefore, Lord say that he would surrender. Roberts' recent losses, nor the Wiltshire The Press Association learns that the British losses at Koodoosrand were 700. More Troops for Africa.

Three thousand fresh troops will embark The relative position of the combatants

The morning papers allude to the thought fulness of Lord Roberts in sending a despatch to the Earl of Minto, the Canadian

The military critic of The Times urges the continuance of efforts to send more While the attack on Gen. Cronje pro- the many difficulties that must be surmountconcentration ed, even after Lord Roberts has succeeded between the Boers and the British. The against Gen. Cronje. He adds: "The splenengagement with Gen. Cronje's 5000 to 6000 dld spirit shown in Canada, which has just entrenched men is likely to become an received the first news of losses incurred in incident in a battle between the masses, the service of the Empire, should serve to

Dorrien's brigade and according to the as a great trophy. foregoing, they were in the deadlest part

DETAILS OF THE FIGHTING. Cronje Said He Would Surrender, and When Asked to Come Into Camp Refused.

London, Feb. 23.—The Daily News has the following despatch from Modder River, dated Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 21: "The Boer forces under Gen. Cronje are estimated at 8000 men. At 12 o'clock he given out an official compilation of the asked an armistice of 24 hours, which was British losses. The total is 11,208 to Feb. refused. Later he sent a messenger to

The Trick Made Apparent. "The British general sent a reply telling him to come into camp. Cronje refused, saying there had been a misu standing and that he would fight to the death.

"The bombardment was then re-opened and our lyddite shells set fire to the Boer wagons. We continued shelling the laager thru the night, and in the morning we reumed with Maxims and rifles, principally from the north side. Waste of Life on Sunday. "On Sunday there was much waste of life in attacking and the same result wil be achieved without it. During Monda night seven Boers made an attempt to break thru our lines, but they were captured and their leader killed. Four wer carrying letters. It is believed that there was one other who got thru. "Other prisoners say that Gen. Cronje marched from Magersfoutein here without outspanning, a distance of 33 miles. Had he succeeded in escaping, it would have been one of the finest performances in the unals of warfare.

TERRIBLE DEATH TRAP DROVE OFF REINFORCEMENTS.

All Directions—Bombarding Cronje's Position. London, Feb. 22.-(4.17 p.m.)-The War Office has received from Lord Roberts the following message, which was delayed in transmission, dated Paardeberg, Wednesday, Feb. 21:
"Yesterday afternoon i was satisfled by a careful reconnaissance Feb. 20 (Tuesday). -Gen. Cronje's magnift- force is cut in two. The Boers hold the in force of the enemy's position cent night march from Magersfoutein now kopje, and have one Vickers-Maxim and that I could not assault it without very heavy loss, which I was most sion along the river bed, opposite the langer, all directions, losing a good many way out or to surrender. Sunday witnessed a gallant stand on the which was shelled thoroly, damaging everykilled and wounded, and about 50 harassed, they still maintained a bold front. small ammunition wagon, which burned from Ladysmith two days ago by will serve the British at night as well as nearly all day. Many other wagons were railroad.

> The infantry also maintained a terrible fire, which was answered vigorously. The scene toward nightfall was terribly picturesque, with the blazing wagons, the roaring four men, all slightly wounded."

THAT FIERCE FIGHTING ON SUNDAY BULLER'S PROGRESS STEADY. Battle Was an Exact Replica of the And It is Expected That Ladysmith Will Be Reached in a Few Days. Paardeberg Drift, Orange Free State, Chieveley Camp, Natal, Wednesday, Feb. Tuesday, Feb. 20, via the Modder River, 21 .- The steady progress of the relief colthe Argylls, advanced from the south bank. Wednesday, Feb. 21.-One of the costlest umn is uninterrupted. The Boers on Tiesand the Essex, Welsh and Yorkshires form- actions of the war occurred at Paardeberg day were forced from their last position ed a long line on the left, which rested on Drift, Sunday, Feb. 18. General Kelly- south of the Tugela, resulting in the evacuthe river, the extreme right being the Welsh. Kenny, in his pursuit of Gen. Cronje, canght ation of Colenso, which was promptly re-The whole line was ordered to envelop the his rear guard at Klip Drift, and followed occupied by the Dublin Fusiliers and Thor-Boers, who lined both banks of the river. the burghers to the Boers' laager at Koo- neycroft's Horse, A Transvaal flag was The firing soon became heavy. The Boers, break, the Mounted Infantry driving the

The Canadians were with Gen. Smith- with Gen. Botha's name. This is treasured day, Feb. 21, says:

Boers Shelled British Infantry.
The Boers heavily shelled Hlangwana Hill and Colenso on Wednesday Feb. 21, and the British advanced infantry were sub- heavy losses." jected to a severe musketry fire, but they had excellent cover and the casualties were

The Boers had the railroad running from Colenso to Bulwana, provisions was left behind. be reached in a few days.

BULLER'S ADVANCE VISIBLE From Ladysmith on Feb, 19-Gar rison is Still in Good Spirits-

Bombardment Continues. London, Feb. 22 .- The Morning Post's gates is Guaranteed. Ladysmith, dated Feb. 19, which says that respondent of The Daily Chronicle says: the hombardment continues with unusual "It is reported that the Afrikander Bond ersistency and activity from Bulwana Congress will not be held unless the miliand Blazuwbank, but is doing small dam- tary authorities guarantee the safety of age. The garrison is in good spirits over the delegates." Gen. Roberts' success and the advance of en. Buller, which is now visible.

SITUATION IS ALL RIGHT.

Lord Roberts Sends Another Bulletin-De Beers Mines to Start in 10 Days.

London, Feb. 23 .- 1.30 a.m.)-The War Office has issued the following from Lord

"Pagracherg, Feb. 22.—Methuen reports from Kimberley that supplies of food and forage are being push-Canadians Made Gallant Charge.
"The Canadians made a gallant charge at the larger, but were driven back with loss."

Of food and forage are being pushed on as fast as possible. There will be enough coal to start the Gen. Macdonald and Gen. Knox are slight. De Beers mines in 10 days. By alleviated. Hospital arrangements there reported perfect. He hopes Prieska and the adjoining country will soon be settled."

At the same time the War Office ansued to-night.

SPENSER WILKINSON'S VIEW.

Roberts Will Shell Cronje's Forces Till They Will Be Forced to Surrender.

reviewing the military situation in The body of the Boers are enclosed in aterrible death trap. The enemy are hiding in the bed of the Moder, commanded by the British artillery, and enclosed on the east and west by the British infantry.

The main probably one or two other guns.

Shelling the Boer Laager.

Toward evening the battery on the south side opened, co-operating with the battery on the north side. A wonderful sight fol
West by the British infantry.

Toward evening the main probably one or two other guns.

Shelling the Boer Laager.

Morning Post, says: "Lord Roberts, who was once an artillery officer, will take care that the artillery fire is properly concentrated. Prolonged shelling will compet the Boers either to hurl themselves at the British infantry.

West by the British infantry. "The result was most satisfac- Boers either to hurl themselves at the Brilowed. The shells fell with amazing preci- tory. The Boers were driven off in tish infantry in the hope of forcing their JOUBERT'S NERVES UNSTRUNG.

> prisoners, who say they arrived be to make a night attack, but the bayonet "They also say it was our artil- sorts of chances, A party of Boers from by day. There are, of course, in war all "They also say it was our artillery fire which caused them to abandon the kopic they were occupying.
>
> "Our loss was two officers, Capt. Campbell of the Ninth Lancers and Lieut. Houston of the artillery, and the second of the second of the artillery, and the second of the artillery, and the second of the second of the artillery, and the second of the Paardeberg will be effected the destruction of the first fraction of the Boer army."

> > TO POUND THE BOERS.

Fifty One-Pound Maxim-Nordenfeldt Guns Are Ordered to Be Sent to South Africa.

Botha's Force Scattered.

holding a splendid position, covered the left of the Highland Brigade, which admain body while another body of Mounted THAN EVER BEFORE ground as they did for the remainder of seized two drifts found the Boers strongly In a Military Sense, The London Times Says—The Boers Will Before Long be Loyal and Patriotic Britons.

In the meantime the rest of the infantry bank. On both the north and south banks Salisbury's reply to Lord Tevnham's question regarding the assertion that Great Bri-The advance across this was deadly, and tain was bound by a secret treaty with it is at the present, adding: "This war has Cronje's laager, full of carts, ammunition was an exact replica of the Modder Germany, which would secure some mea- given an immense experience, which will and stores, could be plainly seen near the River. The soldiers were under fire all sure of independence for the Boers, The tend to make Great Britain stronger than day long, and all the fighting had no defin-

Gen. Smith-Dorrien collected a large body barricaded and they remain therein. The interference unless the Boers were crush- which gives additional strength. of men, including the Canadians, and cross- British guns shelled the laager vigorously, ed the river by Paardeberg Drift, advanc- and the Boers confessed to a loss of over ed, even if anybody felt bold enough or "What Germany has achieved in the Ing toward the larger, which was being vig.

Shelling Monday and Tuesday.

Shelling Monday and Tuesday.

Shelling Monday and Tuesday.

Shelling Monday and Tuesday.

Shelling Monday and Tuesday. The terrific shelling was resumed Monday, mercy to the vanquished. Nobody, we quer the Boers. We shall not rest satis-

London, Feb. 22.-Commenting upon Lord tile enough to England to wish to try." Britain Stronger Than Ever. The Times then proceeds to argue that ite result, as the Boers' laager was well "There would be no precedent for any denced their loyalty in a time of adversity strong enough to try to rob the victors un- Reichsland we shall accomplish in the Boer ed. Before seizing the western drifts, the when Gen. Cronje asked for an armistice, imagine, does feel strong enough or bold fied until they are loyal and patriot Bri-Boers occupied a kopje on the south bank, The shelling was continued Tuesday, over enough to try, who is at the same time hos- tons."

"Commandant Botha has been attempting to relieve Gen. Cronie. "There has been severe fighting.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

Orange Free State and the Transvaal in Plain Language. The British continue to discover large quantities of ammunition. The Boers are Cable Company to-day issued the followwell supplied with food, and a quantity of ing notice: "We are advised that private sive, and he called upon Sir Charles to see ment and Mr. Casey and Mr. Macdonald telegrams in plain language to and from that the rules were properly observed. It is expected that further resistance will the Orange Free State and the South Afribe half-hearted and that Ladysmith will can Republic are admitted over the lines short turn and characterized his answer as made a strong speech, stating the case in the reserve of the censor at Pretoria."

AFRIKANDERS ARE SCARED.

Held Unless Safety of Dele-London, Feb. 23.-The Cape Town cor

BULLER'S CASUALTIES MONDAY The Speaker strove to squelch Mr. Casey, gart was convicted on his own words. He Capt. Thorburn of the Royal Fusiliers Was Killed-Sixteen Were Wounded. London, Feb. 22.-Gen. Buller reports that his casualties Monday, Feb. 19, were:

Killed-Captain Thorburn of the Roya breach of the rule that Ministers had no worth of stamps from the department. The Wounded-Two officers and 14 men.

ROBERTS SHOULD ACT QUICKLY

ing Nearer to His Base of Supplies Than the Boers. London, Feb. 22.-The Times has the following from Paardeberg, dated Feb. 21: "We have expelled 50) Boers from an ise ated kopje, about a mile southeast of Gen ounced that nothing further would be is. that the Boers stanted to reinforce Gen. Cronje from Natal days ago is additional reason why Roberts should finish with him as promptly as possible. Small bodies of Boers, such as have already been broken up, are not very formidable, but a large body, with guns and supplies, would call for serious treatment, in which, no doubt London, Feb. 23 .- Mr. Spenser Wilkinson, Gen. French would find congenial work. "Lord Roberts at present has the ad-

"The best chance of Gen. Cronje would It is Said That He No Longer Exercises Chief Command of BOER STORY IS CONFIRMED. The Wiltshires and Worcestershires Suffered in the Retreat From Rensberg.

London, Feb. 22.-An additional list of casualties sustained by the British troops during the retreat from Rensberg on Feb. Senf to South Africa.

London, Feb. 22.—Artillery officers received hurry orders to-day to proceed to South Africa with 50 one-pounder Maxim-Nordenfelt guns.

Pipe Bargains.

At Messrs. A. Clubb & Sons, 49 Kingwest, they are clearing a lot of Sterling Mounted French Briar Root Pipes, with amber mouthplece, in cases. These pipes are worth from $1.50 to $3, on Friday and Saturday they will be sold for one dollar each, so if you want a genuine bargain, avail yourself of this opportunity.

Cook's Turkish Baths-204 King W. Headache Cured in a few minutes Bingham's Stimulating Headache Powders are not depressing. Money refunded it they fail. 25 cents for box of 12, Bing-ham's Pharmacy, 100 Yonge-street. ed7 Varsity Concert. Hear 40 banjos. 10c Irving Cigars 5c-Alive Bollard, for 129 Yonge street. To-Day's Program.

Queen City Yacht Club ball, Confederation Life Building, 8 p.m.
Osgoode Legal and Literary Society dance, 8 p.m.
Industrial School Board, 5 p.m.
Public Library Board, 8 p.m.
Annual meeting Toronto Fire Underwriters' Association, 10 a.m.
Ashlar Lodge A.F.&A.M. At Home at McConkey's, 8 p.m.
Annual dinner K Co., Royal Grenadiers, 8 p.m. 8 p.m. "Old Curlosity Shop" at Grand, 8 p.m. Splendid show at Sheea's, 2 and 8 p.m. "The Charity Ball" at Princess, 2 and 8 p.m.
"Humpty Dumpty" at Toronto, 8 p.m.
Miss New York Jr. at the Bijou, 2 and

CANADA'S COMMONS IS LIKE A BEAR GARDEN

Liberal Ministers' Excuse for Shady Work in the Use of Franking Is That the Tories Used to Do It!

An Unseemly Scene Follows the Reply of the P. M. G., in Which Mr. Casey and the Premier Are Participants-Roberts' Message.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.-(Special.)-A disgraceful | The Ministers lent their voices to it. Au Mr. Mulock, in answer to a question re- Mr. Foster was heard to say that a fair garding the violation of the franking pri- question had been asked and a fair answer. vilege by Sir Richard Cartwright in send- should have been given, but the P.M.G. ing out 200,000 political circulars, excused had brought in irrelevant matter this action by a reference to an alleged iolation on the part of the late Conserva- and without the sanction of the Premier.

Sir Charles Tupper arose to a question of of the Conservatives was to give legal in-"Gen, Botha's force is scattered with order, and thought that the lugging in of formation by way of illustration. irrelevant argument in answering a ques- Mr. Haggart said that the Conservatives tion lowered the dignity of an officer of had not violated the law, because the camthe Crown, and formed a flagrant violation paign literature was associated with a paof the rules of the House. tent medicine circular and was sent out Premier's Remarkable Position.

Mr. Casey and the Premier arose together, keeping with the law. during the session and 15 days after in out Mr. Casey subsided and the Premier said that where the question was offensive the answer might be made equally as offen- gone thru the farce of moving an adjourn-Mr. Foster took the Premier up with a without eliciting anything new, Mr. Foster from Lorenzo Marquez to Pretoria, under most extraordinary. He could see nothing a non-partisan way, and confending that offensive in the question. It was a fact that private members and Ministers had equal > gard to franking. Casey in the Way.

were heard from every hand. Sir Wilfrid Laurier shouted to him, "Sit | Sir Louis Davies said there was but Casey stood. Finally the whole House held that the statutes supported Sir Richrose at him and he subsided. Mr. Foster continued and declared that After Col. Domville and Mr. Taylor had an order-in-council absolutely prohibited rights in franking. For the information such action as had been carried on by Str of the Ministry he said that during certain Richard Cartwright, who had no greater periods even a speech made outside of the The Bund Congress Will Not Be privileges than an ordinary member in re- House could be franked. This was in an-

Mr. Mulock arose amid cries of "Order, swer to the sneer from Col. Domville that Mr. Casey here arose and interrupted Mr. Sir Richard Cartwright had no more right Foster, while cries of "Sit down!" "Chair!" to frank a speech delivered outside of the than had a washerwoman. Still Casey stood. Pandemonium ensued, days after a session. He declared Mr. Hagard Cartwright's action. A Hypothetical Case Sir Charles Tupper put the case; Would he question on the paper contemplated a the P.M.G. prosecute a man who took $8000 greater franking rights than private mem- culprit was present, the P.M.G. could prove

The Ministerial benches shouted, "Order." When He Has the Advantage of Be- CRONJE MUST FIGHT TO A FINISH NOW,

The Times says editorially: "The fact Boer General Asked Kitchener for an Armistice, But the Hero of Khartoum Says "No"-The Boers Wanted Time.

> Cape Town, Thursday morning, Feb. 22 .- | pondent of The Daily Telegraph says: In reply to Gen. Cronje's request for an "Gen. Cronje's request for an armistice armistice for 24 hours to allow him to was a mere dodge to gain time to make bury his dead, Lord Kitchener told the trenches. Lord Kitchener refused, but gave Boer commander that he must fight to a him half an hour to consider whether he finish or surrender unconditionally.

Gen, Cronje's, position is reported hope to a finish. The Boers having said that ess.
The British have occupied Barkly West. A Dodge to Make Time.

A Dodge to Make Time.

London, Feb. 23.—The Cape Town corresbattle was resumed."

Fur Robe Specials at Dineens'. This snow will not last long, and the season for sleighing is nearly over, (8 p.m.)-The storm is centred in the State the Boers.

London, Feb. 22.—Beer reports say Gen.

London, Feb. 22.—Beer reports say Gen.

Is the inducement that counts with is falling as far east as Quebec, and rain is the inducement to live and use sleigh. Joubert's nerves are unstrung, and that he is the inducement that counts with the man who expects to live and use sleigh-

With a Loewe pipe, a box of the Westminster Mixture, well preserved in a Humidor eablnet, one can really enjoy a smoke while weaving plans of future conquest. The great novelists, Thackerny, Dickens and Bulwer, were famous smokers, and so were the great soldiers, Napoleon, Blucher and Grant. In the evening or in the middle of the day—at the club or in the office—a choice Havana from Mutter's will be an inspiration to the smoker, Forty voices at Varsity Concert.

Penalty Used to Be Death Because she stole some bacon to feed her nine children Mrs. Mary Arthurs of JGS Ningara-street was committed to jail for ten days at the Police Court yesterday. Varsity Concert to-night - Normal DEATHS. CLARKE—Wednesday, Feb. 21, at her late residence, 8 St. James-avenue, Mary Car-oline Fieldhouse, wife of Frederick Clarke, in her 78th year. Funeral will take place from the above residence on Friday, Feb. 23, at 4.30 p.m.

ROBINSON-At his late residence, Nobleton, on Wednesday, Feb. 21, James Robinson, in his 88th year.

Funeral Friday at 2 p.m.

would surrender unconditionally or fight of those celebrated Mountain Bear Robes, in two sizes, at $25 per pair, will rivet the interest of any one in quest of exceptional robe values. And Dineens' clearing sale also presents some rare snaps in men's heavy fur overcoats and fur gauntlets and caps.

33433111111 and minimum temperatures: Victoria, 44-50; Kamloops, 34-48; Calgary, 4-22; Edmonton, 2-6; Qu'Appelle, 12-26; Winnipeg,16-30; I'ort Arthur, 2-24; Toronto, 28-35; Ottawa, 24-32; Montreal, 22-30; Halifax, 18-30.

Probabilities. Cook's Turkish and Russian Baths. Lakes - Northerly to westerly Bath and bed $1.00. 202 and 204 King W winds; snow flurries, but gradually clearing, temperature near freezing point.

Lake Superior-Fair: weather turning older to-night and to-morrow.

Manitoba-Fine weather, turning much

Gives the greatest possible assistance to digestion without drugs—Law's Powdored English Malt.

Money spent at Oak Hall Clothiers, 115 King-street east and 116 Yong-street, is well spent. If you think otherwise, we'll trade the money for the clothes.

When the Records Are Taken, Director Stupart of the Meteorological Office writes: The minimum temperatures given in our daily notes on the weather indicate the lowest thermometer reading recorded at each station in the 12 hours ending 8 a.m., and the maximum temperatures indicate the highest reading recorded in the 12 hours ending 8 p.m.

Pember's Turkish Baths. Excellent sleeping accommodation. 129 Yonge.

Feb. 22. sday, Feb. 21, James Rob- Lake Huron rue and price list sent on