on a charge of indecently assaulting

Amelia Fisher. Joseph Nash, Steven-street, was foun Joseph Nash, Steven-street, was found guilty of a charge of receiving $50, stolen money, from Archie Lancely and Frank Rowles. He was remanded till to-morrow for sentence. The evidence showed that Nash met the boys on the steamer Modjeska. The boys had the contents of a cash box, stolen from Centenary Church. He took them to a boarding house on Berkeley-street and borrowed the money from them.

"Do our Reception Committee assume to dictate to the citizens?" asked Ald, Hubbard.

"They simple assume to the citizens?" asked Ald, Hubbard.

The Reception Committee's report asked an appropriation of $15,000 for estimated expenses, but Ald. Sheppard and Hubbard said it was not a legal report, and Ald. said it was not a legal report, and Ald.
Lamb moved that the report be sent back to the committee, with instructions to submit an estimate which would cover everything, within $10,000. Ald. Lamb severely scored the action of the Reception Committee. So did Ald. Hubbard. Ald. Frame said they were "going it blind." The Mayor reverted to the treatment bestowed upon the Citizens' Committee, and remarked: "We've got to patch that up, anyhow."

When matters quieted a little it was decided that the board would meet to-day at 11 o'clock, and that the Reception Committee and the chosen members of the Citizens' Committee be invited to attend. It promises to be a meeting of considerable warmth.

promises to be a meeting of considerable warmth.

Ald. Oliver was present at the beginning of the meeting in the afternoon, but he had to leave before the fireworks commenced. He was there, he said, to make any explanation the board might wish regarding the report, but the Mayor remarked. "There's a great deal in that report that it will be right to explore," and he thought it should be left to its turn, so Ald. WIFE THROWS CARBOLIC ACID. Blamed Young Woman for Alienating Husband's Affections. Kansas City dashed two ounces of rarbolic acid into the face of Miss Maud Hanson this afternoon because she believed the young woman had alienated the affections of her husband, a traveling man.

Mrs. Mabray, arrived in Omaha this morning and went to Miss Hanson's room on Capitol-avenue shortly after noon. Mrs. Mabray was violent in her manner and charged the girl with having betrayed her friendship by winning away a husband who had always been steadfast. Miss Hanson made an angry response, and then Mrs. Mabray, without warning, threw the contents of a two-ounce bottle of carbolic acid into the other's face. The young woman was severely burned about the checks, nose, chin and mouth.

Miss Hanson is being attended by several physicians, who pronounce her condition serious and the outcome uncertain. Mrs. Mabray at last accounts was still at large. The whereabouts of her husband, John Mabray, is unknown. Kansas City dashed two ounces of carbolic Magistrate Jelfs held a special session of the Police Court this afternoon to try accounty case. It arose out of a big row that occurred at St. George's Church, Rymai, last Sunday night. Two young men were charged with throwing grapes and stones at Robert Young and his rig. They were acquitted.

Tromble Brewing.

There will likely be trouble at the next meeting of the Separate School Board over the Management Committee granting a hilf holiday to the school children to attend the new Hamilton Fulr, alias the horse races. Some of the members think the committee did wrong in closing the schools for such an affair.
