CITY GROCERY STOCK, $1,500, FIX-TURES $500, on good corner, London. Sydney Snythe, 404 Talbot street. Troubled With "Indigestion"

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG. A. B., M. A., M. D. (John's Hopkins University).

"A surfeit of the sweetest things the deepest loathing to the sto mach brings." You often think a bit too earnestly of your dinner and do not count the consequences.

It may not be possible always to tell what a man is by what or where he eats, but you need not be a door tor to be sure thereby of some news from his r "dear friends" who diversels it indiges.

"Broducts of the body are not fully eliminated; of the brain, as where there is a tumor or inflammation of the cerebral membranes—all give rise to stomach symptoms. There may be only a sense of fullness or distress after eating; there may be abdomen or severe paroxysms of pain which cause the victim to double up. These symptoms may be accompanied by nausea and vomiting or the cruckation of gas or sour liquid.

The victim is inclined to be despondent and take a gloomy view of things in general. There may be an absence of appetite, with weakness and loss of weight, resulting from the taking of an insufficient amount of food.

THE WAR HAS OPENED WONDER FUL opportunities for young ladies, and the unusually large number attending the Canada Business College, Chatham, shows the popularity of this splendid school in getting them ready. Its 42 years of success also means much in getting them placed where best pay is available. Catalogue B gives particulars, while Catalogue I tells of home courses.

And that brave Teddy Possum said, "Well, go ahead and I will stand it; but hurry up, for I hear the dogs baying, and in a minute those hunters will be here. I would rather lose the end of my tail, than to have the hunters catch me in this awful trap. Instantly all those good little animals set to work, and in just a few minutes Teddy Possum was loose. They all ran off into the Forest in the very nick of time, before those hunters and little William came to that awful trap.

That brave Teddy Possum had to cry a little as they ran through the woods, for his poor little tail did hurt so awfully. Soon they came up to Cousin Bruin wouldn't hear—"nothing of the kind. Cousin Bruin with the grabbed that old grey thing."

And while these animals were settling who did it, poor little Teddy Possum was nursing his sore tail, and groaning, but not very loud, for he did not wan to disturb Cousin Bruin, who had settled himself for a little Peter Rabbit. Whom everybody thinks so examily scared—ran off and picked a big mullen leaf, the kind that has big woolly leaves and a pretty flower. Then he chewed up that leaf and spread it over that cut place on Poor Teddy's tail, and in a very few minutes, the hurt was all gone and Teddy Possum had fallen into a sweet sleep.
