Talking of Alarm Clocks

The reason we like to sell Westclox Alarms is that they seem to give such excellent satisfaction. Although they are guaranteed we never seem to have any need for a guarantee. Then again we know that if they are bought here they are likely to be sent here if an accident should happen, and it needed repairing, and no matter what is wrong with a Westclox Alarm it is an easy job to make it run again There is Big Ben, Baby Ben, Sleepmeter and America

Previous Effort in Thrilling Photoplay.

The popularity of William Farnum, the celebrated screen star, was evi-denced at the Patricia Theatre yesterday by the crowds that packed this popular theatre to capacity at all performances. "The Lone Star Ranger," the photoplay in which Farnum is appearing again today and Wednesday is a picturization of Zane Grey's ls appearing again today and Wednesday is a picturization of Zane Grey's noted story of Texas frontier life.

The William Fox star fairly outdid the expectations of his most ardent admirers, as a range rider of former Texas days who feared no man and boidly brought to justice a vicious band of cattle outlaws. Mr. Farnum carried his audience with him through thrilling episodes that dealt with bad men, a good woman, pathos and love, to a happy climax.

Dramafical "The Lone Star Ranger" is all that can be desired, with the additional merit of some wonderful scenery. The picture was directed by J. Gordon Edwards.

"The Lone Star Ranger" gives Farnum a brilliant opportunity to reveal anery his dramatic virility, his power to portray the emotional, pathetic, heroic; and he makes the ideal lover in the sentimental phases of the story. His impersonation of the Texas Ranger is most realistic and magnetic. A two-reel special comedy and a Universal screen magazine film are also presented.

In vaudeville, Jennings and Mack present a comedy sketch, "Fun in a Taxicab." This act is one of the best in vaudeville and received rounds of applause.

nservatives nominated Fred Ellering-n, a farmer of Exeter, as candidate the riding at a convention largely attended in Hensall town hall this afternoon.

Henry Eilber, M. P. P., who has represented the riding for 21 consecutive years, resigned from further political associations with the Conservative party for personal reasons.

Eight candidates were before the convention for nomination, but in the third ballot after the others had withdrawn their names, Fred Ellerington was elected by 88 votes to W. H. Elliott's 67.

Henry Forton, president of the S. Huron Conservatives, presided.

Louise Glaum, the famous French actress, showing in "Sahara," a gorgeous screen spectacle showing at the Majestic Theatre again today and Wednesday. Probably the best thing that can be said about it is that in story interest, scenic investiture and lavishness of settings it brings back to mind the old pictures that Louise Glaum did for Thomas H. Ince. It brings all these back and goes them just one better in every capacity. For as regards story, "Sahara," by the technically excellent and versatile C. Gardner Sullivan, presents a series of living characters in a series of situations frought with except and considerable and consi characters in a series of situations fraught with strength and commanding each one acted, directed and set with the utmost in artistry and effect. Glaum has never played with a more sincere show of feeling.

"SAHARA" A FILM PRODUCTION OF ORIENTAL MAGNIFICENCE DELIGHTS MAJESTIC PATRONS

Louise Glaum Stars in Wonderful Film of Gay Paree and Mystic Orient-Special Musical Program Rendered by Majestic Con cert Orchestra.

Lovely Louise Glaum, one of the most alluring stars in the movies, appears in the thrilling drama "Sahara," a wonderful picture of scenic beauty and lavishness of settings, from the society scenes in fashionable Parisian cafes to the stient beauty of the Sahara Desert, picturing its praying Arabs, its palm trees and camels, at the Majestic for two more days, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Preparing the audience for the Egyptian scenes that are to follow, the Majestic stage, beautifully draped with oriental hangings, is held for a few minutes by a little maiden who shows in her oriental costume the beauty and grace of the eastern dancing.

Entering the picture as "Mignon," spolled darling of the Parisian stage, who lives for nothing but admiration from men. Louise Glaum plays the part of the social butterfly to perfection. After her husband's fortune is spent he tells her that he must leave use of an oriental drug. In all these roles Louise Glaum portrays great dramatic ability.

After weeks and months of terror and anxiety her husband is nursed back to part of his former self, and the day comes when, after all these months of stupor, he recognizes his butterfly wife, who turns out in the end to be a faithful wife and a loving mother. The oriental scenes in "Sahara" are wonderful, and the gowns worn by Miss Glaum are superb.

To complete an excellent program a very funny Lloyd comedy picture is shown, as well as General Curry's visit to the Western Fair; also some excellent views of the prince in Toronto. During the showing of the "Sahara" the Majestic orchestra plays suitable music.

Face Peeling Easy-Blonde or Brunette

"The blonde's complexion fades early, because her skin is extraordinarily thin and fine," says Mme. Lina Cavalieri.
"The brunette's, as a rule, is the reverse. The skin is thicker and the reverse was a rule, is the reverse. The brunette's oily or sallow complexion, the best remedy is ordinary mercolized wax. Used every night, this will give one an entirely new complexion within about a week's time. The wax gradually peels off the worn-out surface skin, with all its defects, a little each day, without affecting the delicate underskin in the least. The latter will have the exquisitely beautiful glow of youth—indeed, one may readily lose ten or fifteen years from her age, so far as appearance goes, by a course of this simple treatment. The wax, procurable at any drug store, is applied like cold cream.—Advt.
