North Wellington League To Embrace More Baseball Clubs

PALMERSTON, April 21.—A very enthusiastic and well-attended baseball meeting was held in the Queen's Hotel committee rooms here last night, and the North Wellington Baseball League reorganized. Some 40 out-of-town representatives were at the meeting and much business handled. The question of the North Wellington teams entering the Northern League if reopened was thoroughly discussed by both representatives of the North Wellington League and representatives from other outside clubs attending the meeting, and the feeling was that the North Wellington had already organized after the war-time slump, and had in 1919 a highly successful season, and that it would be wiser to widen out the North a highly successful season, and that it would be wiser to widen out the North Wellington. The outcome of the meeting was that the North Wellington League be thrown wide open, and officers elected at once for the 1920 season, leaving the executive committee to be filled, this committee to consist of the president-elect, the secretary-treasurer-elect, and one representative from each club entering the league. rom each club entering the league Each club that already has a communication in will be written personally, and the date of the final meeting to be set by the president and secretary-treasurer, to be announced in each letter, as well as through the press. treasurer, to be announced in each letter, as well as through the press, in order that every team wishing to enter the league might have a representative at the meeting to draw up a complete set of rules and regulations, complete set of rules and regulations, group the teams off into their respective groups and, other business that might be brought up at the meeting. The officers elected from some 45 nominations were as follows: Honorary president, W. A. Clarke, M.P., Palmerters, Out the program vices presidents.
