Mrs. Treble's Gift.

In the presence of a large number of representatives of the Toronto University and other affiliated colleges, Chan-cellor Burwash of Victoria University laid the corner-stone of the new house-hold science and art building, which is the gift of Mrs. Lillian Massey Treble to the University of Toronto. The approximate cost of the new structure will be $300,000, and it is expected to be ready for occupancy in two years. The first sod was turned Map 16 last. The building is to be of Greek (Ionic) architecture, constructed of dressed sandstone. It has a front-age of 70 feet on Avenue-road by a depth of 130 feet on Bloor-street, will be three storeys in height. In the corner-stone were placed two sealed glass jars containing copies of yesterday's daily papers, a history of the school from its inception 12 years ago by Mrs. Treble, current coins, a revision of the work of the department of domestic science, by Prof. McCallum of Toronto University.

In a scholarly address, President Faloner referred to the good work of the foundress and to the growth of the Prof. John Hopkins, chairman of the board of governors, dwelt upon the ul-timate beneficial results of this important branch of university work. The department was for the benefit of women who desired to take a course in Jusehold science and art, and at the present time 275 students were in attendance, 50 or 60 of whom were university girls.

of intemperance.

The issue was introduced into the cers for the municipal elections.

Ald. McMurrich called attention to a motion of Ald. Hales which has been resting unobtrusively on the order paper for some weeks, and which, after dwelling on the baleful influ-ence of intoxicants asked council to declare that "a reduction in the num-ber of places authorized to sell intoxiber of places authorized to sell intoxi-cating liquors would tend to relieve the condition of those who suffer from the sale and use of such liquors and to improve the condition of the whole

"An insult to many people in To-ronto," was Ald. McMurrich's comment and he went on to declare that in Hamilton Ald. Hales had cast an aspersion on the people of Toronto.
The latter replied that he had not done so and that he had been misreported.

"There is nothing in the resolution that refers to business of the city council," said the mayor, judicially. "I must rule it out of order." Ald. Hales intimated that the it pained him to have to do it, he must appeal against the mayor's ruling.
