The campaign inaugurated by The World against the sow thistle, and the recent articles pointing out the rapid spreaad and enormous damage of this remove to their new home at Aurora, most pernicious of Canadian weeds have where Mr. Wilson has accepted a posiroused great interest among the farmng community.

The World is in receipt of numerous communications expressing apprecia-tion of the good services already wrought, and suggesting ways and ed, said to The World last night : "While the spread of the perennial sow thistle is alarming, I do not look upon its eradication as beyond ordinary care and perseverance. Keep the sow thistle thoroly under cultivation for one season and you master it. That is, do not allow it to receive air, and prevent the leaves from forming. The great difficulty," continued Mr. Ren-nie, "is in the spread of the seed when

WEST TORONTO.

WEST TORONITO, Sept. 23.-St. Anne's Church on Gladstone-avenue was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday evening, when Mabel A. Whiteley, orbindale, Alta, was united in marriage to Frank A. Noden of the firm of Noden and Hallitt, West To-ronto. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lawrence Skey, rector of St. Anne's. The bride, who was given away by her uncle Dr. Back, was at-dired in a becoming suit of toupe with hat to match, and carried a shower with black picture hat, and carrying with black picture hat, and carrying with black picture hat, and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. Austin Law acted as best man. Edwin J. Johnston, George Trimble and Frank Ni-choils were the ushers. The groom's gift to the bride was a ring set with whole pearls, to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, and to the groomsman a gold fountair pen. Mr. and Mrs. Noden left for their honeymoon trip to the Georgian Bay and Sault Ste.

The Metropolitan Railway Company will on October 1 inaugurate a new time table, in which it is said the 10.30 car ripe, by high winds carrying the light, downy seeds from the careless farmer to the careful. Herein lies the great difficulty." Mr. Rennie was not prepared to say Mills would greatly appreciate the retention of the 10.30 car or even an hour later. It is probable that a strong petition will be presented asking for some concessions in the matter.
