Wanderers and Quebec Tied Hockey Torontos Drop Their Fifth For First Place in N.H.A. Race Hockey Straight to the Canadiens

GORDON MEEKING WILL ASK FOR HIS RELEASE

Unable to Do Himself Justice at Ottawa-News and Gossip

An Ottawa despatch says: George Boucher, Lower Ottawa Valley star, who tried out with Ottawas at the start o the season, lined up at tonight's practice and will likely be signed by the Ottawa and will likely be signed by the Ottawa Club before the week is out. Boucher is a centre-ice man, and was one of the best goal-getters in the Lower Ottawa Hockey Association.

Meeking showed his first flash of form at last night's workout. The O.H.A. star has been ill since his arrival in Ottawa, and has consequently been heavily handicapped. There is some talk in hockey circles here of Meeking and Stavneau being let out. Meeking, so it was stated today, may go to Hot Springs for the winter.

According to one of Meeking's close friends, he will ask for his release if he cannot get into shape and play up to form. The illness was brought on, so it is stated, by Meeking contracting a chill while sitting on the players' bench in the Toronto-Ottawa game.

Toronto-Ottawa game.

A Kingston despatch says: This afternoon Captain Jas, T. Sutherland, president of the O.H.A. received a telegram from George R. Hallock of Boston, prezident of the American Hockey League, in which information was asked regarding the standing of J. F. (Moose) Heriernan, who was last year with the Toronto Victorias when the tean was suspended. Heffernan is expected to play in a game tomorrow night at Boston with the Crescent Athletic Club of New York. Capt. Sutherland replied that Heffernan is under suspension by the O.H.A., but not professionalized.

At Vancouver—Professional hockey was resumed Tuesday night after a holiday rest-up. The Vancouver team entertained the Seattle Club as their visitors, and furnished one of the most interesting games of the season, which was won by Vancouver by a score of 4 to 3. The line-up:

Vancouver—Goal, Lehman; point, Patrick; cover, Griffis; rover, Taylor; centre, Stanley; wings, Duncan and Cook.
Seattle—Goal, Holmes; point, Carpenter; cover, Rowe; rover, Walker; centre, Foyston; wings, Rickey and Morris.
Heferee—Mickey Ions. Judge of play
—E. I. Black.

At Victoria—Portland, the leaders of the Coast Professional Hockey League, were the visiting team here Tuesday in a scheduled fixture with the local club. The match marked the resumption of hockey after a week's rest-up and was won by Portland by a score of 10 to 5. Line-up: Victoria — Goal, McCulloch: point, Genge; cover, Riley; rover, Mallen; centre, O'Leary; wings, McDonald and Kerr. Portland—Goal, Murray; point, Irvine: cover, Barbour; rover, Oatman; centre, Dunderdale; wings, Tobin and Harris. Referee—Tom Phillips.

ecretary E. N. Runions notified the O Secretary E. N. Runions notified the O. H. A. yesterday that the Cornwall Hockey Club had decided to withdraw from the Senior O.H.A. series for the present series. Mr. Runions added: 'The teams of different leagues in Montreal have been taking our boys away, they being able to give them be ter positions than they have here leaving our team so weak that, should we remain in the O.H.A., we would have to play men who are not eligible, which we do not irtend doing." The withdrawal of Cornwall leaves Queen's, Frontenacs and Brockville in Group No. 1, and a double schedule will likely be arranged.

Gorman and L. McCormick, two of the later importations of the Cleveland hockey seven from Buckingham, Que., but who received but little chance to play regularly because of the superiority of the other members of the team, have left to join the Pittsourg team. Cleveland, however, has a squad of fourteen players left.

The Argonaut squad worked out with Aura Lee last night. Jack McCamus and Dr. Jerry Laflamme were both out and worked hard.

The Commercial League will stage ouble-header at the Arena tonight. Aura Lee juniors will show at home for the first time on Friday night, when the Argonauts and Riversides play a senio game at the Arena on Saturday night. All the N. H. A. referees now sport gray sweaters: with red crests bearing the league initials. They were provided by President Emmett Quinn.

The N. H. A. penalty for throwing sticks is not by any means severe enough. Banishment for the game, should follow in every case. Under the present system the offender goes off five minutes and a substitute comes Where's the penalty there?

Owing to mild weather the first hockey game of the season, scheduled for last night at Kingston between the Fron-tenacs and K.C.I. in the junior O.H.A. had to be postponed.

The Grand Trunk Hockey Club of Ottawa made such a good showing in its opening game that it has been offered dates at Cleveland, Pittsburg and Boston. It is doubtful if the railroaders will be able to spare time for the trips.

New Pitcher Signed By Toronto B. B. C.

President McCaffery of the Toronto Ball Club signed his first new man yesterday, a right-handed pitcher name terday, a right-handed pitcher named Dye, a college player from Pittsburg.

Bill Clymer of last year's Torontos, and next year's manager of the Louisville A-A team, was a visitor at baseball headquarters yesterday. The Torontos are still without a pilot, and no one in sight. Ed Barrow telegraphed the caput that the Cincinnata meeting turned out satisfactorily and that he would be back in New York today.

TAIL-ENDERS OUTPLAYED BY CANADIENS THRUOUT

Torontos Scored Only Goal in Last Period When Frenchmen Worked Their Subs.

MONTREAL Jan. 5 .- The tail-end Torntos, outplayed in all stages of tonight's scheduled N. H. A. contest, were the vic-tims of another decisive defeat at the hands of the Canadiens. The score was Johnny Brennan, referee; Fred Lake, udge of play.

Wanderers Drop Their First Game to Quebec

QUEBEC, Jan. 5.—The expected Wanderer crack came tonight when Quebec tied the leaders after a game in which the locals outplayed the visitors from start to finish and scored 6 goals against 1. At that the Wanderers goal, netted by Smalll from a face-off, was a lucky one, the they certainly deserved more, such sensational hockey did Moran play. Lindsay, also, was in good form. The Quebec forwards, Malone, Marks and Crawford, not onl overwhelmed the Wanderers' defence with their systematic combination, but broke up rush after rush with their energetic checking back. Malone scored four goals, Smith none, as he was put out of the game early by a bad gash in the face.

Wanderers (1)—Lindsay, goal; S. Cleghorn, O. Cleghorn, defence; Bell, wing; D. Smith, centre; Roberts, wing.
Quebec (6)—Moran, goal; Mummery, J. Hall, defence; Crawford, wing; T. Smith, centre; Marks, wing. entre; Marks, wing. Cooper Smeaton, referee; Dave Powers, udge of play.

LINDSAY BEAT BELLEVILLE.

LINDSAY, Jan. 5.—Before a large crowd Lindsay opened the hockey season here tonight, defeating Belleville in a junior O. H. A. game by 6 to 1. The ice was of the heavy, sticky variety.

Score by periods: First, 2 to 0; second.
