MEMBERS ANXIOUS TO CLOSE BUSINESS OF FEDERAL HOUSE

Franchise Bill and Pensions Still to Be Debated—Expect Session Over This Month.

NO SNAGS ANTICIPATED

Ottawa, June 20.—(By Canadian Press.)—The end of the parliamentary session is approaching. The present week may see most of the business of parliament disposed of, and members and senators should be on their way home before Dominion Day.

Good progress was made with the main estimates on Saturday when a total amount of approximately thirty-five millions was voted in a few hours. The supplementary estimates have yet to be brought down, but discussion on them will probably prove brief.

Unionist Caucus Likely to Be Called on Tuesday of Wednesday Promises Interesting Developments.

Ottawa, June 20.—(Special.)—Altho notices calling the unionist caucus have not yet reached the members, it is understood the meeting will be Tuesday or Wednesday. Some Liberal-Unionists are protesting against fusion of the two parties, claiming that such action means their absorption into the Conservative party.

TURKEY CAUSES ANXIETY TO BRITAIN AND FRANCE

Hurriedly-Arranged Meeting of Premiers, While Ostensibly For Discussion of German Reparation, Deals With Turkish Situation—Request of Greek Premier Meets Polite Refusal.

London, June 20.—Serious developments in the near east seem to be the occasion of the hurried convening of the Hythe conference with the Greek premier, M. Venizelos, according to some of the London and Paris papers.

It is learned that M. Venizelos contended that the ten Greek divisions already in the Thrace and Smyrna districts, constitute the only force immediately available for effective operations against the Turks, but insisted that operations shall be confined to purely defensive measures. It is recalled that the allies, in asking the Greeks to occupy Anatolia, exacted the promise that they do not operate beyond the peace treaty boundaries.

HOLY NAME PARADE TWO MILES LONG

Sixteen Thousand Five Hundred Workshippers March on City Streets

One of the largest and most impressive parades witnessed in the city for many years was the first annual rally of the Archdiocesan Union of the Holy Name Society, held yesterday afternoon, when according to official figures, 16,500 members of the adult and junior branches from the various city parishes assembled on the streets surrounding the House of Providence.

FACTIONS IN LONDONDERRY OPEN VOLLEYS IN STREETS; FIVE DEAD, MANY WOUNDED

SINISTER RECORD OF SINN FEIN

Dublin, June 20.—During the first four months of the year Sinn Fein has an official statement given out today, one thousand two hundred and thirty-seven offences charged to the Sinn Fein were committed in Ireland. These include murders, assaults and incendiarism. The total of such offences for all of last year was five hundred and ninety-nine.

Series of Outrages Reported in Ireland

Brisbane, East Kerry, Ireland, June 20.—A large party of raiders attacked the police barracks here with rifles and bombs early yesterday morning. The police replied with rifle fire and grenades, beating off the raiders after a two-hour siege. One constable was wounded.

Newly-Elected Council of County Donegal Passes Resolution.

Clifford, County Donegal, Ireland, June 20.—Acknowledgement of the Sinn Fein's authority in under-taking to give effect to its decree is contained in a resolution passed by the newly-elected county council. The resolution requests also that foreign governments, in the interests of international peace, make representations to the British government for the withdrawal of the army of occupation and to refuse all information and statistics to British officials.

HYDRO PICKETS READY FOR INVADING STRIKE-BREAKERS

Force of Five Hundred Expected From Montreal to Meet Hot Reception at Chippawa—Mass Meeting at Niagara Defies Beck's Ultimatum.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 20.—The belief expressed by all the strike-breakers at a picketed mass meeting of employees of the Hydro development works in the Queen's Theatre tonight, was that the Hydro Commission to close down the works is a colossal bluff. Emphasis was laid on the fact that tomorrow will bring the acid test when the ultimatum of the commission expires at 7 p.m.

THREAT OF INVASION

Threat of an invasion of 500 strike-breakers from Montreal was met by the appearance of a force of picketers several hundred in number, who patrol the whole canal. Mr. C. R. Swayze, M.L.A., Niagara Falls, voiced his sympathy with the men fighting for the eight-hour day.

TRY TO STAMPEDE

The decision of the Hydro Commission to shut down the canal came as a great surprise to the federation. They do not believe that it is a probability, but rather an attempt to stampede men into going back to work tomorrow when the ultimatum of the commission expires.

KEEP POWER GOING

It is, however, authoritatively said that there is little danger of a general stoppage of power. Enough men will remain to keep the power plants going until men start to return from the province who are familiar with the work and as brought here. Large numbers of skilled men and laborers have been leaving yesterday and today being crowded with them. The majority of them are going to Montreal, where work is said to be going on.

Several of Injured Are Likely to Die, and Casualty List is Believed to Exceed One Hundred—During Saturday Night's Reign of Terror, Attempts at Incendiarism Are Made and Large Drapery Store is Burned—Elaborate Military Precautions Fail to Prevent Fierce Exchange of Rifle and Revolver Fire Between Unionists and Nationalists.

Londonderry, June 20.—(Associated Press.)—Five persons were killed, ten others seriously wounded, several of them probably mortally, and about 100 city Saturday night. The rioting was accompanied by several attempts at incendiarism, one of which resulted in the burning of a large drapery store.

ELABORATE PRECAUTIONS

The authorities had taken elaborate precautions in view of the expected renewal of the disorders. The military, fully equipped, took positions at the head and foot of Bridge street, which is the Nationalist quarter, and on Lisle road, between these localities, to keep the rival factions apart.

PANDEMONIUM REIGNS

From shortly after 9 o'clock until 11 o'clock pandemonium reigned. A shot fired from one party into a crowd of rival partisans developed with ominous speed into violent rioting. Party cries were raised, and the Unionists assembled at the head of Upper Fountain street, poured volley after volley of rifle and revolver fire into Longtower street, with disastrous results.

TWO SHOT DEAD

In an early stage of the battle, two men were shot dead in Longtower street, and a number of persons, including a baby in arms, were wounded. McVeigh, a quarry laborer, was on his way to a butcher's shop, when, reaching the end of Longtower street, a bullet struck him in the throat. He died in a dying condition toward a building in house nearby, where he fell. Owing to the fierce fire, it was impossible to go to his assistance, and eventually a man rushed thru the power of bullets and dragged him to the shelter. No ambulance was available, and an attempt was made to carry him to an infirmary on a shutter, but he died on the way.

GIRLS IN CONFLICT

A large crowd assembled in the non-residential quarter in the center of the city, where fierce fighting also occurred. Two girls were among the combatants here. Armed police on duty were compelled to phone for military assistance. But before reinforcements arrived, the riot flared to greater intensity, and the firing by Unionists became so hot that people who had been seeking shelter in doorways were seen to be crawling along the ground to places of safety.

CLASH OF ARMS

As gradually the Unionists gained control of the entire district in the center of the city, chasing the Nationalists into their own locality. In their retreat the latter fired volleys into the Masonic hall, the windows of which were broken. The Unionists posted small groups at vantage points and kept up a continuous fire. It was here that a girl was killed as she entered the doorway of the Diamond Hotel, where (Continued on Page 2, Column 4).
