

- 27 Dissection of superficial parts of inguino-femoral region.
- 28 " of first and second layers of inguinal region and thigh.
- 29 " of third and fourth ditto.
- 30 " of fifth and sixth ditto.
- 31 " of seventh and eighth ditto.
- 32 Relative position of spermatic and iliac vessels and internal abdominal ring.
- 33 External inguinal hernia.
- 34 Internal " "
- 35 Distinctive diagnosis between internal and external inguinal hernia.
- 36 Anterior view of plate 35.
- 37 Neck of external and internal inguinal hernia and relation of inguinal vessels.
- 38 Anterior view of plate 37.
- 39 Nature of congenital and infantile inguinal hernia and hydrocele.
- 40 " " " " with scrotal hernia.
- 41 Origin and progress of inguinal hernia in general.
- 42 Ditto.
- 43 Femoral hernia and seat of stricture.
- 44 Femoral vessels and relation to adjacent parts.
- 45 Origin and progress of femoral hernia.
- 46 Diagnosis of femoral hernia.

A number of Anatomical Plates will also be found in the Dissecting Room and other parts of the Building.

- (7) OBSTETRICS: A SET OF MOUNTED PLATES (twenty-nine).
1 to 29 Moreau "Accouchemens" (standing on the semi-circular shelf in the centre of the Museum).

- (8) SET OF OBSTETRICAL PLATES in bottom of glass case No. 3.

- (4) THE PLATES TO ACCOMPANY CRUVEILHIER'S WORK, "Anatomie Pathologique du Corps Humain," about two hundred in the lower part of glass case No. 3.

- (5) OTHER PATHOLOGICAL PLATES. From various contributors.

Tacked up on the walls of the Museum.

- DI. Fungus hæmatodes of leg (oil painting No. 60, Old Univ. Cat.)
- DII. Fungus hæmatodes of the lower part of the abdomen.
- DIII. Gangrene of leg.
- DIV. Pericarditis, unorganized lymph.
- DV. Pericarditis, deposition of lymph extensively on the heart and pericardium.
- DVI. Pericarditis with deposit of lymph.