

FIRST VOLUME NOW READY.

A CONSOLIDATED DIGEST

Of the Decisions of the Courts of the Province of Quebec. In two Royal 8vo. volumes.

PRICE: $10, payable on delivery of each volume.

Edited by J. L. SNOW, Law Librarian, under the supervision of EUGENE LAFLEUR, Q. C., of the Montreal Bar; GORDON W. MACDUGALL, of the Montreal Bar.

The Publishers beg to call the attention of the profession to this much-needed publication. The necessity, at this date, of a Consolidated Digest will be readily admitted. In most countries the judgments seldom exceed two in number before consolidation. But, apart from the material advantages of a Consolidated Digest as such, the publishers have been advised of the necessity, in this Province, of a Digest which shall be correct in its citation of the Reports, as well as a thoroughly reliable exponent of the state of our jurisprudence at the present day, noting carefully the cases overruled, and elucidating those points where the jurisprudence is conflicting. Bearing this end in view, the Consolidated Digest is compiled directly from the whole of the Quebec Reports. The following are categorically the leading features of the publication.

The highest degree of accuracy obtainable secured by a system of double checking.
Common sense system of classification.
Each case cross-referenced where possible.
Each case headed with catch words in enlarged type.
Order of cases alphabetically arranged, according to principal catch word.

The Digest shows the present state of jurisprudence upon a given point.
A condensed style combined with accuracy of expression.
Revised Reports cited as far as completed.
Statutes and articles of the Codes referred to.
List of cases digested, show cases overruled, and points concerning them.

THE CODE OF PROCEDURE
ANNOTATED.

By VICTOR E. MITCHELL, B.C.L., of the Montreal Bar, Editor of the Pocket Edition of the Code of Civil Procedure, and ED. FABRE SURVEYER, LL.M., B.C.L., of the Montreal Bar, Editor of the Quebec Reports.

PRICE: $6.00 TO SUBSCRIBERS ONLY.

The Publishers beg to announce that about June, 1901, they will publish a complete annotated edition of the Code of Civil Procedure. The text will be in both languages and arranged in parallel columns; under each article will be found the appropriate jurisprudence, both the old and the new, given in the language of the reports from which it is taken. There will also be given the Rules of Practice, annotated, a Table of Concordance, and a very complete Index in both languages.

NOTE.—If a new tariff of fees should be promulgated before the above date, it will be included in this work.

A VERY IMPORTANT FEATURE.—A new feature to be introduced in this work will alone make it well worth the subscription price. So far as it is possible, the relations between the corresponding articles of the former Code of Procedure and the new Code will be indicated by heavy brackets. It is important to note that this Code will contain three years' legislative amendments and jurisprudence, the latter probably amounting to twelve or fifteen hundred cases decided under the new Code.
