AND
HOMILIES AND EXPOSITIONS BY UPWARDS OF ONE HUNDRED CONTRIBUTORS.

The aim of "The Pulpit Commentary" is to provide scholarly introductions to the sacred books; to divide the text of Scripture into paragraphs, and to supply each paragraph with such Expositions as shall meet the wants of the student, and such Homiletical suggestions as shall assist the preparations of the Preacher.

The Expositions give Textual Criticism, Revised Translation where necessary, Explanation, Apologetics, Reference to Ancient Customs, Contemporary History, Natural History, Geographical Research, Science, and anything that tends to light up the text, and make it available for practical instruction. These are followed by a comprehensive Sermon Outline, embracing the salient points of the preceding critical and expository section, and by brief Homilies from various contributors, designed to show different modes of treatment, and to bring into relief different aspects of the passages under consideration.
