WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves the Ailments of Change of Life.

"During Change of Life I had hot flashes, dizzy spells and every month I was wild with misery. I had a constant dull pain, and would always feel tired. I suffered in this way for five or six years and was treated by a physician and took different remedies without benefit. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me and I took it, and I believe I would never have been well if it had not been for the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am recommending your medicine to all women all over the world. I think it will carry them safely through the Change of Life, and relieve the ailments that come at that period."—Mrs. ALEXIE C. NANGLE, Galatia, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches, and "the blues," should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and if complications exist write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience in such cases is at your service.

BLIND HUSBANDS

Directed by Stroheim himself

THIS is the wonderful picture which authorities consider one of the three best photodramas that the art of the screen has ever produced. Simple in plot—the story of a neglected wife—"BLIND HUSBANDS" is the most absolutely gripping photoplay you have ever seen—with a tremendous surprise at the end that will make you gasp. With its scenes laid in the Alps, "BLIND HUSBANDS" rises to heights of drama as overpowering as its towering peaks. If you miss this picture you will miss one crowded hour of photoplay entertainment—a picture that you'll never forget.

The concert was largely of a sacred nature. The band, under direction of Bandmaster Waddington, gave several beautiful numbers in masterly manner. Others participating in the programme were Frederick Joyce, Miss Katherine Gulliver, C. A. Munro, Miss Rhona Lloyd, D. J. Gallagher, the Messrs. Moore quartette, David Allen, and the Cathedral juvenile choir. The proceeds were in aid of the St. Vincent's school building fund.
