

Snookums Is To Be Married To One of The Chorus Girls

Little Harold West, Who Played The Part Here-Engagement of Edmund Breese in Vancouver-Three Hundred in Cast of Brady Play

Girls! Just think! Little "Snookums" is going to be married—and he so young! It's a fact—little Harold West known to St. John audiences some months ago as "Snookums" in "The New Yorks and Their Baby" will be married to one of the chorus girls of the company, Ruth Miller. Love will surmount all obstacles, it is said, and in this case it has to overcome the matter of altitude for the prospective groom about two feet shorter than his bride-to-be.

Those who recall him as the bewiling infant in swaddling clothes in St. John will remember how tiny he was, and while it may not be altogether ideal for the bride to see her hubby sitting about in infant's dainties, or hear him bawling with rage from the depths of a baby carriage, still the old adage about Cupid's optics not being in first-class order will probably apply.

Edmund Breese, formerly of the "Edmunds" in a letter to Paul Scott, has agreed to play a special stock engagement in Vancouver, B. C., at the $750 weekly stipend offered, and will report there as soon as he has finished his opera posing in "The Master Mind," on the Pacific Coast.

James K. Hackett is again to become active as a producing manager. For the last three years Mr. Hackett has managed his own tour in "The Grain of Dust." Next season, however, he will produce several new plays, and in addition, is likely to once more have his own theatre in New York.

Mr. Hackett's plans at present include an elaborate production of Othello, in which he himself will play the Moor. Mr. Hackett has been invited to play Othello at the Greek Theatre at Berkeley, Cal., in September. He has accepted the invitation, and will therefore be incentive to playwriting will be found in the apparently reliable statement that the American drama has not earned $8,870,000 between 1904 and 1909. But, then again, perhaps greater incentive to playwriting will continue to be found in the fact that some 14,000,000 dramatic compositions have yet to be dramatized.

"After the Girl," which George Edwards is producing in London, this week, is his sixteenth. Girls have always predominated in his titles, and thirty of the sixty plays he has had some feminine titles, such as "Lady Madcap," and "The Duchess of Dantzic," fifteen have actually had the word "girl" in the title.

Grace George, popular in St. John, gave her first production of "The Girl in the Hat" in St. John, N. B., in 1904. It was extensively advertised, and the play attracted the attention of the audience.

My heart and nerves were so bad I could not sleep, and the least noise or excitement would make me feel so that I used to think I was going to die. I tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and can certainly say they did me great amount of good. I can recommend them to anyone who is suffering as I was."

Julian, Almonte, Ont., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know how thankful I am for what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has done for me. A few years ago I was made up for appendicitis, and was confined to the hospital for five weeks. When I returned home I contracted a severe cold which left me with a bad cough. The ailments of Mendota, Ill., have faded the mayor's salary at sixteen cents a day, on the ground that he is healthy, and needs no salary at all. The mayor refuses to work unless he is paid $300 a year, and in the meantime the city business has been at a standstill.

The red cheeks, good appetite, increasing weight and strength that follow the use of these pills prove their great value to thin-blooded people. Here is an example. Mrs. R. Steele, of Boston, writes: "Following chronic illness I took a pain in my head which grew so bad I had to call in a doctor. He told me that my blood had turned to water and that I was in a serious condition. He treated me four months, but still the pain was there. I lost my appetite, and I was so weak and run-down that I could not move. Then I took a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in a few days the pain was gone, and I was able to get up and about. I was so pale as a corpse, and the doctor told my friends he had but little hope of my getting better. My cousin who came to see me urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I sent for a supply. In about a month I was getting better, and by the time I had taken six boxes I was able to do my usual work as ever I did in my life. I have never had a twinge of the pain since, and feel that I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so they cured me after the doctor had failed."

THE SALVATION ARMY While every citizen has a general idea of the Salvation Army, and its value to a community, these are very few who really appreciate the scope and many sides of the operations of its world-wide organization.

The army's first mission seemed to be to preach the gospel by word, but the same spirit which led the heart of the late General Booth out to the godless masses of East London, led him also to see the wretched condition under which they lived, and he understood that some scheme must be devised whereby their temporal circumstances must be altered. This led to the beginning of the army's social operations, and the establishment of its institutions which can now be numbered by the hundred.

There are more than 10,000 officers at work in 107-112 countries. These, with every Salvation Army soldier, are able to obtain this benefit condition of membership. Every week 47,330 fill up with whiteness so bad that he could scarcely make a sound, and I thought he would surely strangle. He grew worse, and had frequent bad attacks, so I began using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Pine and Turpentine. Scarcely half a bottle was used when the strangling ceased. This medicine had a wonderful soothing effect, and when he had taken two bottles I could not tell that he had any throat trouble. We have also used Dr. Chase's Ointment with equally good results. It is a grand medicine for all throat troubles.

There are imitations, but the genuine Dr. Chase's Syrup of Pine and Turpentine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., the famous Receipt Book author.

SOCIALISM

Fathers, guard into death the sacred citadel of your home. It is a question of war—the war of Hell against Heaven—the war of Satan against Christ—the war of the atheist against the Christian child.

They know that if they can kidnap the child, they can make the state atheist, country materialist, and they will seize the child and make it fat and make it merry, but they will suck the soul of the child and leave it a human life that has no God, and a human heart that has no love. No! not even the love of father or mother. There is one power in the world that can face this question sooner than you think. You may have to face financial difficulties, political, economic, and social, and you will get through them, but you must have more men, you must be heroes. However, other things may turn—however terribly they turn to evil, may matter much, but it does not matter most, and say that no power on earth or hell can conquer you have the grit of martyrdom.
