restoration of the independent Polish kingdom, the emperor said:

"It is a sincere joy to me to be able to greet you, as the appointed representatives of the Polish state, in my capital. I gather from your words, with lively satisfaction, that you see in the acts carried out by my exalted allies and myself fulfillment of the long-cherished desire of the Polish people for re-establishment of the independent Polish kingdom and that you believe you will be best serving your fatherland if in common with the German empire and Austro-Hungarian monarchy, you pursue the aims which guarantee the weal of humanity and peaceful co-operation of peoples.
