

WIFE OF EILLS ALERT WOMAN

Tells Story of Hunt For Her Husband—Used Printer's Ink Freely

(Boston Globe)
Mrs. Harriet Cox Eills, wife of John Eills, who has been arrested in Japan in connection with the kidnapping of his own daughter, told a story this afternoon of the triumph of a mother's love and woman's wit over almost unsurmountable obstacles in tracing her husband and daughter through foreign countries, culminating with his arrest and detention, pending the action of the authorities.

Mrs. Eills was seen at the offices of her attorneys, Hoar & Dewey, at the Tremont building, and considering the fact that she has performed under the strain and continued to make the fight of her life for her loved one.

Her attorney, realizing that kidnapping was not an extradition offense, secured a warrant on the charge of perjury in connection with the efforts of Eills to have his wife committed to the insane asylum, and that may be the instrument that will make possible the bringing back of the runaway husband, but there is nothing in sight at present to guarantee the immediate return of the child, in case Eills decides to leave her in Japan and return to stand trial on the charge of perjury in Hampden county.

Mr. Hoar said this afternoon that he will ask District Attorney Suffolk county, to press the charge of kidnapping, in case there may be some way to extradite Eills on the charge of perjury, and this means that the fugitive will be tried on the two charges in two different counties on his return to this country.

Taking up the case from the date of her husband's last appearance in Merrimack square, Lowell, on Feb. 22, where it was supposed he was waiting for a car to carry him to Washua, she said: "After I had secured the indictment by the Suffolk grand jury of Mr. Eills, Capt. Armstrong of the bureau of criminal investigation sent out circulars to many places, and even across the water to foreign countries."

"I caused to be printed in all about 6,000 circulars with excellent pictures of my husband and child, and they were sent to the newspaper offices. By M. C. and women's organizations of the world, as well as church societies, steamship offices and every line of effort in which my husband was interested and would be liable to participate when he reached other shores."

"These circulars were carefully translated into several languages. The first news I received of his movements after leaving Lowell was the report that came through a paper from Manitoba that he had passed through there, and by personal effort I learned from Mr. Shea of the Manitoba Free Press that he had spent 96 hours in Mr. Shea's company while traveling between North Bay and Winnipeg."

"Through our endless chain letter and circular efforts we learned that he had gone to San Francisco, and through the friendship of a Mrs. Myrtle Palmer, the housekeeper of a San Francisco hotel, I learned that Eills had been stopping at the house where she was employed, but had probably left for parts unknown."

"We began the hunt anew by interviewing every sea captain, steward and viewing every person who would be likely to have any clue to his identity and in fact every person who had taken passage on the steamer Whilamena for Japan."

"This gave us a fresh start and rather difficult trail to follow, but we got in touch with the officials, clerical men and police of Japan, as well as the government officials, with the result that he was located in that country. Mrs. Eills quite naturally was excited over the turn of affairs, and late this afternoon was waiting at the office of her attorney to get a confirmation of the arrest, which was chronicled in the Globe this morning."

EIGHTEEN MONTHS IN PRISON ON WHITE SLAVERY CHARGE

Cornwall, Ont., Oct. 15—John White, a resident of Solway, N. Y., has been sentenced to one and a half years' imprisonment in the Atlanta penitentiary on a charge of white slavery preferred against him by Mrs. Kate Martin, of Millersville in the United States Court at Syracuse.

Mrs. Martin's daughter Pearl, aged fourteen years, was induced to leave home during the first week in September by a Mrs. Antoine, of Massena, N. Y., who is a sister of White. The girl was promised fine clothes and a good situation if she would go to the States. Mrs. Martin has been searching for her daughter ever since, and located her only a few days ago. Mrs. Antoine became frightened of the girl she took, and helped the mother find the girl.

White eluded the officers for some time, but was arrested by Deputy Marshall Smith in Syracuse and his sentence followed. White is a widower with one son.

London, Oct. 15—The will of J. Pierpont Morgan was probated today. His estate in the British Isles amounted to $5,896,185, so that the budget of chancellor of the exchequer benefits about $960,000.

AMERICANS POURING INTO WESTERN CANADA

According to reports received by the Canadian Pacific, the migration of Americans to western Canada continues in large volumes. During the week ended October 7, there entered western Canada by various ports from the United States 1167 persons with $287,044 cash and effects valued at $108,408. Of these 444 were farmers, 191 laborers, 220 women and children, 117 mechanics and 56 clerical workers. Of these 593 were Americans and thirty-eight Canadians returning.

During the same week western Canada lost only 116 persons of various nationalities who left to reside in the United States, of whom twenty-two were farmers. During the same week 462 homesteads were entered upon in western Canada, of which 139 were taken up by Americans.

LIONS EXCITE STAR AUDIENCE

The Star Theatre in North End sprang another big feature yesterday in "Love Among the Lions," one of those startling animal tragedies which European players take such desperate chances in putting on. To enact a thrilling play before the camera in the midst of a den of snarling ugly lions is a wonderful feat. Outside the range of the camera a circle of carbiners stood ready to kill any of the ferocious beasts that might take a hand in the play in real earnest. It was a tense tale and those who saw it felt as if they were in attendance at some great circus like Barnum's or Ringling's. In addition the Star had two fine Biograph comedies—a welcome change after so much dramatic and adventure. This fine bill will be concluded tonight.

Most of Crimes of the People of That Land Have to Do With Tombs and Burials

Seoul, Corea, Oct. 16—A curious social fact about Corea is that the most numerous crimes committed by Coreans are connected in some way with tombs and burials. This is the conclusion of M. Kokubu, chief public prosecutor of the supreme court here. A common occurrence is for Coreans to bury their dead in ground belonging to other people without first obtaining the consent of the owner. This is sometimes accomplished in secret, sometimes by force, and it is almost invariably done under cover of darkness.

The underlying reason for these offences is the Corean superstition that the property or unhappiness of the surviving members of the family in which death has occurred, as well as the happiness of the departed person, depends upon the selection of the burial ground of the dead. Therefore, when Coreans are told by soothsayers that a certain spot is good for the burial place they do not hesitate to take possession of the indicated ground.

Blatant crimes concerning tombs also are frequent. The criminals first open the tombs belonging to some wealthy family, then remove the head of the corpse and hold it for ransom. In former times the blackmail succeeded, as Coreans believe that the desecration of tombs brings woe to those who allowed them to remain in ruined condition. Recently these crimes have decreased, owing to the activity of the police.

Abduction of Widows Popular

Mr. Kokubu has recorded another favorite Corean custom, namely, the carrying off by force of widows by bachelors who are unable to marry in the regular way on account of their poverty.

Influenced by Confucianism, Coreans believe that a widow who remarries is morally bound not to marry a second time. On the other hand, many men cannot marry on account of the great expense attached to the ceremony. These two conditions have combined to bring about abductions, which are very often solved more than elegantly. Immediately a woman loses her husband some Don Juan in needy circumstances is certain to undertake her rescue from widowhood. Accompanied by friends, he goes to the woman's house at midnight and bears her away. Afterward the marriage is announced at a banquet.

All Classes Marry Early

The investigation of crime and criminals in Corea by Procurator Kokubu, in a tradition of widow abduction, led him to study marriage customs in general. These he finds have not been changed by the annexation of the peninsula to Japan.

All classes of Coreans marry very early. Not infrequently one meets in Corea boys and girls of fourteen or fifteen already married. These boy and girl marriages are arranged by their parents, the young people having no part in the decision, save that with an astrologer, to whom the parents of

A MESSAGE FROM A WOMAN TO WOMEN

"Every Woman Should Take 'Fruit-a-Lives'"

Lakelet, Ont., May 12, 1911

"Kindly publish this letter of mine if you think it will benefit other women who might be afflicted with the disease I have had in the past, but am now, thanks to 'Fruit-a-Lives,' completely cured of. It is my firm belief that every woman should take 'Fruit-a-Lives' if she wants to keep herself in good health. Before taking 'Fruit-a-Lives,' I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as 'nerves' or severe nervousness. This nervousness brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief. Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for which the doctors said 'I would have to take medicine all my life but 'Fruit-a-Lives' banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman."

A prospective couple go for advice. If the astrologer decides against the pact the matter is dropped. If his advice is favorable presents are exchanged between the two families and the coming wedding is announced to the actual parties to the alliance. They are, however, still not allowed to see each other.

In Corea girls are kept in an "inner chamber" and are not allowed to go out. They are entirely sequestered from society, and consequently are melancholy and unsocial. The wedding announcement is accepted by the prospective bride as heart-breaking news, for she has to leave her own family and join strange people. On the wedding day she says good-bye to her parents and goes to the groom's house, carried in a Corean chair covered with a tiger's skin. This the Coreans believe keeps away the evil spirit. The bride is allowed to see her husband for the first time only when the wedding ceremony is over, for during the ceremony her head is enveloped in a thick veil.

Daily Hints
For the Cook

Preserved Grapes
Pick the stems from the grapes, have them whole, reject all mashed ones, fill a can without washing them, although I should dust them off as well as I could. Pour boiling water over them and let them stand five minutes. Drain off the water, pour boiling water over again and let stand five minutes, then drain off, pour on boiling sirup and seal. Always use good rubbers and tops.

Boston Cookies
One scant cup of butter, 8 eggs, 1-2 tablespoons cold water, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped walnut meat, 1-2 cup seeded raisins, 1-2 cups sugar, 1 teaspoon (level) baking soda, 8 cups flour, sifted twice to lighten it, 1 small teaspoon of cinnamon.

Cream the butter and add the sugar gradually, and the eggs well beaten. Add the soda dissolved in water, then the cinnamon and salt sifted in with the flour. Lastly add the walnut meat and raisins. Drop by teaspoonfuls on the outside bottom of dripping pan, and bake in a quick oven.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S MISSIONARY UNION

St. Stephen, N. B., Oct. 15—The U. B. W. M. U. annual convention opened here this morning in the Baptist church with a large number of delegates in attendance. Words of welcome were given by Mrs. J. B. Robinson, and responded to by Mrs. J. W. Manning. The morning session was devoted chiefly to the receiving of the provincial reports.

The afternoon session was marked by an interesting event, when the esteemed Mission Band treasurer, Mrs. Mary Smith, was presented with an illuminated address on parchment for her untiring energies in the work. The annual address by the president, Mrs. D. Hutchinson, of St. John, was most instructive and interesting.

The recording secretary, Mrs. C. Fullerton, and the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Martell, submitted their annual reports. The year's financial record was presented by Mrs. G. B. Smith. The address: "Our Present Opportunity in South America," was read by Mrs. W. H. Johnson, of St. George. This was most instructive and gave the past and present condition of the people of South America, making a strong appeal to the missionary board to do something for the people of that country.

Miss Mary Grimmer rendered a solo to the delight of the visitors. The local union entertained the visitors at tea in the vestry of the church at the close of the afternoon session.

This evening the home mission reports were given by Mrs. Porter, and E. Parsons, Ottawa. Rev. E. Bosworth delivered an address on the Grande Ligne mission.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. Mary Smith, showed a balance on hand of $6,287.07. The afternoon greetings were received by the convention from the local unions of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Trinity and Christ churches.

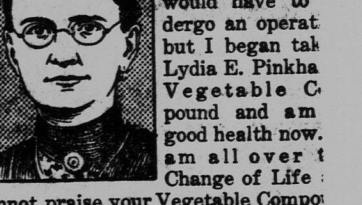

Mrs. Gabbagh—My husband treats me abominably. Why, he's kinder to dumb animals than he is to me.

Mrs. Blunt—Perhaps their name suggests the reason.
