An examination of them was made yesterday afternoon by Charles McLaughlin, representing Lloyds, and Timothy Collins representing other insurance companies. The cargo included nearly 5,000 bags of potatoes, and between 400 and 500 bags were found damaged. As potatoes in Upper Canada are bringing from $2.75 to $3 a barrel, it will be understood that the loss is considerable. About 2,500 bags were consigned to an Ottawa man, and about a like amount were for another Upper Canadian firm. The potatoes which were damaged were those well to the bottom of the piles.

SATURINA DID NOT BRING OUT ANY SCOTCH COAL

Donaldson Liner in Port With Large Passenger List and Good Freight — Much Coal From Here

After having had a rough passage across the Donaldson liner Saturnia, Captain David Taylor, docked at her berth at Sand Point about eight o'clock this morning. The steamer left Glasgow on March 2 and when a few days out encountered some pretty rough weather which necessitated her slowing down somewhat. The rough weather continued almost all the way.

The big liner had on board, besides a large general cargo, 428 passengers—390 for Canadian points and thirty-four for the United States. The passengers were mostly all Scotch people, who will locate in the Canadian west, and they are fine and healthy looking. Most of the passengers traveled steerage.

Besides the cargo and passengers the Saturnia had on board 140 Clydesdale horses which will be shipped immediately to western points. Mayor Frink went on board this morning and found the animals in good condition.

The Saturnia will load 1000 tons of coal here on account of the strike which is now on in the Old Country. In speaking of the strike Captain Taylor said that the steamer had left Glasgow before the serious trouble began, so that he knew but little of what was going on. He said that the strikers had been making great preparations and had everything well organized before they went out.

It was said on board that the Saturnia did not bring out any Scotch coal for St. John.

The effects of the strike in the old country are felt by the Dominion Coal Co. here in increased business. The big coal pocket is being worked day and night. The steamer Blackheath, with 7,500 tons of coal on board, is now unloading at the pocket, and just as soon as she is able to pull out the Bonavista, with 1,100 tons, will tie up at the pocket and start unloading.

Nearly all of the winter port steamers are taking on enough coal here to last them until they get back to port, and it is keeping the coal company people busy filling the orders. The Allan liner Virginian will take on 4,000 tons of coal, the Saturnia will take about 1,000 tons, the Manchester Trader will load coal here, as well as other steamers now in port.

The company have all the men that they can possibly get at work and night and day crews are kept on the hustle.

The coal steamer Lingan is now loading at Louisburg for this port, and will arrive here in a few days. These three steamers, the Blackheath, Bonavista and Lingan will be kept on the route now, carrying cargoes of coal from Cape Breton to this port.

HERE'S NEWS OF THE FIRST CIRCUS

Ferari's Show Coming in Summer—A Lesson in Geography Needed

St. John people are likely to at least see one circus this way during the coming summer as arrangements are now being made for the Colonel Ferari's United Exposition Shows to appear in St. John, Halifax, Sydney and other maritime province cities. The managers of the show say it is a carnival rather than a circus, and, as such, of course, is new to this section of the country. After a glowing account of the indications for the coming season being the best on record, and upon the "greatest aggregation of tented amusements which has ever crossed the border," a writer in the Billboard has a central paragraph on the subject which causes dubious thoughts to arise as to his knowledge of geography, and also as to whether a show of such exceptional merit could remain the length of time mentioned in the three maritime provinces. The paragraph is as follows: "His agent, Victor D. Leavitt, has reported to Colonel Ferari that he has booked fourteen weeks in the biggest and best cities of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and other of the maritime provinces. In the list already are St. Johns, Halifax, Sydney, Brantford—in fact every place of consequence in the land where the presidential election of this year will matter not, nor will it interfere with the industrial conditions of that section in which the Ferari United Exposition Shows will hold forth."

IDEA TAKEN UP ELSEWHERE

St. Monica Society Success Here Leads to Similar Work in Other Cities

Up to the present time the St. Monica Society, established in St. John partly for the benefit of Catholic immigrants, having provided a very good booth in the immigration bureau at West St. John, has distributed Catholic literature of various kinds amongst at least 3,000 people, representing practically all the nationalities of the world.

The work of the society in St. John has been so successful that there is word of the idea being taken up and put in practice in many cities, where the Catholic people have heard through the press of the excellent work done here. The St. Monica Society sends two or three of its members over to look after the immigrants each week. The society already numbers seventy members. It is thoroughly organized, and aims to carry out a valuable work for the benefit of Catholic immigrants into Canada east and west.
