

Social Notes of Interest

The home of Miss Pederson, Lakeside, was the scene of a delightful party on Friday afternoon and early evening, the occasion being the celebration of the ninety-first birthday of Mrs. G. S. Fisher, mother of Mr. G. Fred Fisher, former mayor of St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were host and hostess for several special friends of the guest of honor, who was very happy over the event. A large birthday cake was very attractive with its adornment of artistic icing and bright red candles. After the delicious dinner, served by Miss Pederson, addresses were made by Mr. J. Lefferts Thorne and other gentlemen present. Mrs. Fisher responded graciously to the honors extended her. A beautiful black leather handbag was presented her, among other gifts. Bridge was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Josephine Young, Mrs. E. L. Rising and Mrs. J. Horne. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hanington, Mr. and Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. E. L. Rising,

WEDDINGS

Millidge-Campbell.

Beautiful June weather prevailed Thursday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Oliver (Olive) Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Campbell, Cornwall, to Brydson deBois Millidge, M. C., M. Sc., of the Howard Smith Paper Co., Cornwall, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis deB. Millidge, of St. John, N. B., which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Second street east, the ceremony being performed by Rev. James Faddis, of Knox church, assisted by Rev. Hugh Munro, of St. John's church. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lewis Millidge and Mrs. F. Dunlop, of St. John, N. B., mother and sister, respectively, of the groom; Mr. Merchant M. Mahoney, of the British Embassy, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Mahoney; Miss Marion Wilson, of Toronto; Mrs. F. Benger, Mr. Andrew Rutherford, Mr. Gordon Robertson, Miss Anita McCarthy, all of Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Millidge left on a wedding trip to Quebec and the Saguenay, St. Andrew's, N. B., and the groom's former home in St. John, N. B., and will be away for three weeks. The bride traveled in a suit of brocade, with a hat to match.

MANY ATTEND NOVENA.

The services in the Novena of the Sacred Heart being held in St. John the Baptist church, Broad street, are being largely attended. The closing service will be on Thursday evening, and the Feast of the Sacred Heart will be observed on Friday. Rev. J. J. McDermott, parish priest, announced yesterday that a meeting of all the women of the congregation would be held this evening to plan for the strawberry festival or summer fair next month to help pay off the debt on the new school. The men of the congregation are also preparing to give another minstrel show this week.

celebrated her seventh birthday. The yard was decorated with flags and the tea table, which was set out of doors, was trimmed with blue and pink. The children numbered just the years of the little guest of honor, including herself, with her little sister making an extra. The cake was very gay and the children had a jolly time. Many beautiful presents were presented Marion. The guests were Phyllis Tverrett, Helen Kennedy, Ruth Kennedy, Marjorie Chown, Billie Smith, Edgar Cowan and Frances Harrison. Mrs. P. Y. Wedderburn, of Hampton, assisted Mrs. Harrison in entertaining.
