

In presenting this eighth annual report of the Y. L. M. S., we feel very grateful to Dean Carmichael and other friends for the means they have placed at our disposal, which have been sufficient for all our needs. The membership list was below that of last year, but much interest in the work was shown by the young ladies, and the average attendance at the meetings was very good, notwithstanding the illness which prevailed in the city for a time. Meetings were held every Monday from November 4th to March 24th. Six bales of clothing and other useful articles were sent to missionaries in our own diocese. $10.00 were given to Mrs. Dawson, who had kindly collected to pay for the laying down of pipes, pump, etc., for one of our missionaries. $50.00 were sent to the Rev. Mr. Renison, Algoma, to help to rebuild his parsonage, which had been destroyed by fire last November.

As this is the only missionary society in connection with St. George's Church associated with Woman's Work, all moneys for missionary purposes are passed through our books. The sum of $20.00 was handed to us from the Sunday School for Miss Ling's work; also $42.00 from members of the congregation for Canon O'Meara, for Rupert's Land Mission.

During the winter, the members of the Society collected over $50 to provide a library for the women's wards in the General Hospital. Over 150
