

Pathology, Obstetrics, Gynecology, Medical Jurisprudence, Ophthalmology, Diseases of Children, Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery. By passing these examinations on the plan above suggested a definite amount of work is accomplished each year, and an equal division is made between the primary and final branches.

Seven prizes will be offered for competition during the ensuing Winter Session.

The Wood Gold Medal.—A gold medal, presented annually by Dr. Wood to the student who has attended at least two six month's sessions at Bishop's College, and at the final examination has the highest aggregate number of marks on all the subjects of professional examination.

The Robert Nelson Gold Medal, (value $60).—Presented annually for the best special examination in surgery, open to all candidates who have taken honors in all the subjects, and who have attended at least two six month's sessions at Bishop's College.

The David Medal.—In 1880 the Faculty founded a Scholarship which was afterwards named the "David Scholarship" in honor of their late Dean. Owing to changes having occurred in the arrangement of lectures, it has been decided that in future this prize shall consist of a silver medal to be known as the "David Medal," which will be awarded to the student who obtains the highest number of marks in the primary examinations.

Chancellor's Prize.—A prize in books to be given annually by R. W. Heneker, Esq., Chancellor of this University, to the student who passes the best final examination. (This prize is not open to the "Wood" Gold Medalist.)

The Wood gold medal, the Nelson gold medal, the David silver medal, and the Chancellor's prize are awarded to those who have attended at least two (2) six months' courses at Bishop's College.

Prizes in books will be given to :—

- 1 The student who passes the best examination in botany.
- 2 The best dissector in the first year.
- 3 The best dissector in the second year.

To obtain first class honors at least seventy-five per cent. of the marks must be taken ; second class honors, at least sixty per cent ; to pass the ordinary examination at least fifty per cent.

No student can receive a prize who has not taken honors in the examination.
