SPORTING MATTERS

DESPISED TEN TO ONE HORSE

BEAT OUT FAVORITE IN KINGS

PLATE RACE ON WOODBINE COURSE

TORONTO, Ont., May 19.—Saturday was a day of surprises on the Woodbine course. Out of the six races run, only two went to favorites. Longshots took the others. Most of the interest naturally centered in the King's plate race for 50 guineas, given by his majesty, and $4,000 donated by the Ontario Jockey Club. This is the oldest race in America, having been run every year since 1850, and seems to grow in popularity with each successive season. It never attracted so great a crowd as yesterday. The horses that had been picked to win were Hon. Adam Beck's Photographer and Seagram's Sea Wall and Half a Crown. To the dismay of every one, however, bookies, owners and onlookers, Kelvin, an almost despised ten to one horse, showed in ahead of the favorites and won by a length. Half a Crown secured second place and Bilberry, a bay gelding, owned by M. Delorsy, Toronto, and against which bookies were laying 100 to one, came in third. Kelvin's time was 2:12.5.

Photographer languished in sixth place while Sea Wall finished twelfth. Sixteen horses ran altogether. The winner is a brown colt owned by T. Ambrose Wood, a Toronto wine merchant. He was bred by Hendrie of Hamilton, and sold three years ago as a cast-off. It is understood Wood purchased him for about $100.

The new betting regulations were in force on the course yesterday, and as a consequence bookmakers' stalls were empty, while these gentlemen by no means diminished in number, wandered about among the crowd carrying their yellow satchels and laying odds as of yore. Bookies and betting men both complain of the new system, patrons of the men with the satchel never knowing where their trustees are to be found.

Following is the result of the day's six races:

First race, six furlongs, in year-olds and up; trial purse, $500—1st, Purland, owned by Seagram, even; 2nd, Lord Bonanger, 2 to 1; 3rd, Zenerius, 3 to 1. Time, 1:13.2-5.

Second race, half-mile, two-year-olds; juvenile purse, $500—1st, Clell Hill, owned by Amos Turney, 15 to 1; 2nd, Col. Faverdale, 20 to 1; 3rd, Enn, 50 to 1. Time, 4:9.2-5.

Third race, one mile and sixteenth, three-year olds and up, Minto stakes, $1,000—1st, Earl Rogers, owned by Wm. Walker, 5 to 1; 2nd, Sir Ralph, 4 to 1; 3rd, Thistle, 15 to 1. Time, 1:45.

Fourth race, Royal Canadian steeplechase, 1 1/2 miles, 4 year olds and up, $400—1st, J. G. C. A. L. Poole owner, 5 to 1; 2nd, Crown, 4 to 5; 3rd, Bilberry, 100 to 1. Time, 3:26.4-5.

SOCIETY LEAGUE

WILL OPEN TONIGHT

The Shamrock grounds are now in fine condition for the opening of the Society League this evening, when the St. Joseph's team, the holders of the trophy, will play against St. Peter's, who gave them such a hard fight for the trophy last year. The game will be of interest in that the possibilities of the teams will be figured out from this evening's game. Each team has a strong line-up and should play good ball.

The City Cornet band will leave the head of King street shortly after six o'clock and parade to the grounds, where they will remain during the game.

At 6:45 o'clock Mayor Sears will formally open the season and will pitch the first ball. Dan Connolly will officiate as umpire. The line-up of the teams will be as follows:

St. Joseph's. Catcher, St. Peter's.
Creagan Pitcher Rogers
McGuigan Howie
Stimpson McAnulty
McCourt J. McCormick
Burke Fred Mahoney
Long (Capt) E. Mahoney
Harris Small
McCafferty C. McCormick
Conboy Donnelly

OLIVE AND GIBSON

STILL ON EVEN TERMS

The half-hour race at the Queen's Rollaway drew a large crowd of spectators on Saturday night. Some lively brushes took place between Olive and Gibson, and as both the leaders are on even terms with Hunter, the third man only one lap behind as yet, it will be hard to pick the winner for the final dash. The contestants will go at it again tonight. Great interest is being taken in this race. The following are the distances made on Saturday night:

	Miles.	Laps.
Olive	8	6
Gibson	8	6
Hunter	8	6
Gleason	8	6
Black	8	2
C. Smith	8	1

TOTAL MILES SKATED: 48

	Miles.	Laps.
Olive	17	0
Hunter	17	0
Gibson	16	13
Gleason	16	12
Black	16	4
C. Smith	16	3

The race continues after the tenth band tonight, and the finish will be on Tuesday night.

BROKE ANOTHER RECORD

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—At the middle states intercollegiate championship track meet on Franklin today, Talbot, the young giant from Mercersburg, Pa., Academy, who has broken many records this year, threw the 12-pound hammer 205 feet 8 inches, breaking the former record of 193 feet 4-4 inches, held by himself. Paul of Mercersburg made a new American inter-collegiate record by running 4 miles in 22.5. The former record was 4:31.

QUEEN'S ROLLAWAY.

Tonight is the eighth at the Queen's Rollaway, and visitors will see the great one-half hour race now going on after the tenth band. Tomorrow night will decide who is the champion long-distance roller skater of the maritime provinces.

ANNUAL CARPET SALE.

Commencing Wednesday morning, Amland Bros., Ltd., Waterloo street, will hold their annual carpet sale and this will give every good housekeeper an opportunity to save money, as carpets of every description have advanced in price. While their large stock of carpets was purchased before the advance, this will give the public a chance to buy carpets at greatly reduced prices, as their entire stock of English velvets, Brussels and tapestry carpets have been marked down. A glance at their advertisement will readily show what can be saved in purchasing new carpets during this sale, and intending buyers should be early on hand to secure these rare snaps.

Thomas Hetherington, ex-M. P. P. who has been spending a few days at his home in Queens county, was in the city on Saturday and left that evening for Boston, where he is engaged in immigration work for the Canadian government. He thinks the resources of this province should be better advertised in the United States.

Among the Canadian visitors who registered at the Canadian High Commissioner's office, London, during the first week in May are: T. F. White, St. John; Capt. and Mrs. V. L. Bear, Charlottetown; C. McL. and Mrs. Avarad, Amherst; J. C. Farquhar, Mrs. H. S. and Misses Poole, Miss O'Leary, R. N. Jago, Harry J. and Mrs. Crowe, W. Conington, Halifax.

Several drivers of livery carriages who make their stand on King square have been reported by the police for breaking the Sunday Observance Act. It is understood they drove persons to and from the cemeteries as in the past, and it is claimed that under the new law this is not allowable. The drivers say they will engage counsel to fight the case should it come up for trial.

Quartettes by Howard and Elmer Holder, George Brown and Edward Bonnell; two solos by Mrs. R. T. Worden, duet, by Marion Irvine and Harry Trenholme; solo by Mr. Bonnell, whistling solo by Walter Nixon, and a solo by little Miss Morrison, were the features of a very excellent social concert in the Every Day Club hall last evening. The hall was crowded, and the accompaniment of the songs were Miss Gunn, Mr. Bonnell and Miss Piercey.

On Douglas avenue, Saturday, two young fellows, one of whom had knocked a boy over a bicycle, were reported to have had ready punishment meted out to them. Two men working nearby declared the knocking of the boy over the wheel was a wanton act which resulted in the lad's injury. The first two questioned, the others to express an opinion and state were raised. A lively few minutes followed and the workmen resumed their occupation peacefully, administering a good thrashing.

The Bellevue has been properly termed the Eden of America, one of the most beautiful bodies of water on this continent, with its gentle sloping shores. It is on this pretty stream that the Portland Y. M. C. will hold an excursion on Victoria Day (May 24th), leaving at 10 o'clock from the city at about 8 a. m., returning to the city at about 4 p. m. The excursion will be on the main river. Tickets round-trip only 50c.

The Harvey Trade-Extension Sale started out again this forenoon with a brilliancy that augured well for the success of the week. Many who secured bargains in clothing and furnishings on Saturday told their relatives and friends, with the result that a large number of buyers were on hand bright and early this morning. Each day of this week Mr. Harvey will have new goods brought forward to take the place of those sold out. Everything is new and seasonable, nothing that has been worn and jettisoned as well as recreer and other outer garments for children. It was in no wise like visiting a bar, but a real pleasure in the nature of an early opening. All the best models were there to be selected, new coats, just like most recent fashion pictures; cute little garments for children, and an air of freshness and attractiveness pervaded the place—a genuine expression of unfeigned surprise.

MRS. J. A. PERKINS.

Mrs. Julia A. Perkins died yesterday at the residence of her son-in-law, R. H. Sanction, 341 Leinster street. She was 81 years of age, and the widow of D. H. Perkins. One daughter, Mrs. Lottie Sanction, and two sons, George E. of Albany, N. Y., and E. F. Perkins, of Scarsdale, Pa., survive.

DANIEL MURPHY.

Daniel Murphy died yesterday at the Mercicordine Home. He was a well known citizen, and for years was a sail maker. He is survived by his widow and one sister.

JOHN PITMAN.

The death of John Pitman occurred yesterday at his home on Brunswick street. He was 80 years of age and a retired carpenter. His wife and two daughters survive.

CHARLES E. ENGLISH.

The death occurred yesterday morning of Charles E. English at the age of 85 years and six months. For many years Mr. English had suffered from bronchial affection, and during the past winter he was confined to the house. He resided with his sister, Mrs. Robert R. Boyer, and while his death was not unexpected at any time, it was a shock to Mrs. Boyer on entering his bedroom to find him lying dead on the bed. From his appearance he had passed peacefully away.

Mr. English will be remembered by many of the older people of the city as a man of sterling integrity and with a warm heart and genial disposition. He was a stone mason by trade, but for some years he had not been actively employed.

Of a family of eleven brothers and sisters he was the youngest. He was born in Indianston by the late and Samuel English of Montreal. Born at Hampton in 1821, he removed with his family to this city in 1852.

Mr. English possessed a fund of information and reminiscences of the days when railroads and steamers were unknown, and excursions and woodboats were the modes of travel. He will be missed by all who knew him. He was unmarried.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of Robert R. Boyer, 23 Exmouth street. Rev. Dr. Raymond officiating. Interment will be made at Fernhill.

ERNEST I. COSMAN.

The death of Ernest Inches Cosman, eldest son of H. Gibson Cosman, the Union street hardware dealer, occurred yesterday morning about three o'clock. The young fellow had been suffering from pneumonia for several months, and underwent treatment at the hospital. He did not improve there, however, and was removed to his home, where he was attended by his parents, two brothers and one sister. The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning at Midland, Kings county. There will be a service at the house on Monday evening at 9 o'clock.

JOHN A. BURNS, SR.

After an illness of a few months' duration, John A. Burns, sr., one of the oldest and best respected residents of Hatfield's Point, Kings Co., passed away at his home there on Thursday night in the eighty-second year of his age. Besides a large circle of friends, he leaves a family of eight children, five sons and three daughters. The sons are George A. and W. W. Burns at home; J. R. Burns, Western Union Telegraph Co., and John H. Burns, I. C. R. engineer, Moncton; S. D. Burns, train despatcher at St. John; L. E. Dryden, Winnipeg, Man.; Mrs. Fletcher Jones, and Miss Annie Burns, at home.

WILLIAM M. SMITH.

The death of William M. Smith occurred at his home in Damascus at 3:40 a. m. May 18th, aged 90 years 4 months and 4 days. Beside his widow he leaves six children—Walter J. Smith of Maine, Charles E. of St. John, Robert S. of French Village, William A. and I. Ernest of Damascus, and one daughter, Mrs. John I. Pray of South Berwick, Maine. The funeral will be held at his late residence, Damascus, at 2 o'clock on Tuesday, May 21st. Interment at French Village church.

MRS. A. F. ORR.

CHATHAM, May 18.—Mrs. A. F. Orr, daughter of William Kerr of this town, died at Oldtown, Me., on Tuesday, aged 33 years. Mrs. Orr had many friends, who learn with great regret of her early death. Her husband, one son and a sister, Mrs. Sydney Harding of this place, survive her.
