Put in His Mouth by Col. Jones in an Unofficial Report to Governor Carter of Hawaii.

HONOLULU, Dec. 10.—Much interest has been aroused here by a report of Col. Jones of the Hawaiian militia to Governor Carter of the territory of Hawaii, in which Col. Jones, in commenting on the strategic importance of the Hawalian islands and the need of war in the immediate future between the U. S. and Germany, and that the principal scene of the fighting would be in the Pacific Ocean, with the Hawalian Islands as an objective point.

Major General MacArthur, who is still in Honolulu, having been here the past two weeks studying the military situation of the territory, stated to a reporter of the Associated Press today that the report of Col. Jones does not correctly represent his views in any particular and utterly misrepresents them in some. Col. Jones said his report to Governor Carter was based solely upon social conversations he had with Major General MacArthur and that he only reported his expression in substance with a view of impressing Governor Carter with the need of strengthening the isolated islands from a military standpoint. Col. Jones said he took no notes of his conversation with General MacAr-thur and that his report was made from memory. The conversation occurred during a social call which he and Col.
