- - Dartmouth - Railway depo la News Co... JUNE 10.—Saturday last was one of the loveliest days which came this season, and apparently plea-sure loving folk made up its mind to enjoy to the utmost the balmy atmosphere. In the afternoon the park was gay with handsome equipages; Green Bank was thronged with spectators who came hither to witness the yacht race on the harbor. Perhaps the yacht club grounds presented the most brilliant scene of all, the gay society world being here well represented, sauntering over the grounds listening to the sweet strains of the Leicestershire band, or assembling on the plaza of the club house to view or cheer their friends taking part in the race. Besides the civil element present, I remarked a goodly sprinkling of their military acquasintance; also several officers of H. M. S. Emerald, and not a few foreign looking gentlemeo, who, I was in-formed, were naval officers from the Bisson, the French warship. JUNE 10 .- Saturday last was one of the lovelies

From Auother Correspondent. Jurg 10.--"Ladies day" at the Yacht club, last Saturday, was a perfect success. The weather was all that heart could desire, and some 300 were pre-sent to witness the race for the Archibald cup, which was won by Mr. McLeod's Lenore. The verandas of the club house were filled with an en-thasiastic crowd of youth and beanty. The ladies had donned their best and freshest toilettes, and looked on with great interest while the Lenore and Youla struggled for success. Occasionally might be seen a couple, stalwart manbood and sweet glil-hood, too much engrossed in each othert to care much for the race; but these cases only served to make the scene all the more charming and inter-esting. Mrs. Mullins, South street, and Mrs. Henry, South Park street, gave teas last week. Also Miss Lynch, Tobin street. These mild excitements are the only entertainments I have heard of.
Rev. W. B. King officiated at his own church in Haufax, last Sunday. He hopes to go to the United States this week, on leave. He has been far from well, and the doctor orders him perfect rest, and a sea voyage. Unfortunately he cannot go to England, having only returned a few months ago from a three months visit to that country, so now he is good, for he is much loved by his congregation.
