Heavy gales have prevailed on the Great Lakes and the weather has been showery in both Ontario and Quebec. In Manitoba it is fair and cold.

KICKED IN WINDOW OF CIGAR STORE

A mysterious piece of vandalism was committed at the corner of Mill and North streets last night, about 11.30. Some person kicked in the large plate glass window in the North street front of the cigar store kept by Sidney Isaacs, and made such a quick getaway that no clue whatever was left as to identity. Daniel Connolly, who lives next door heard the crash of falling glass, and was on the scene within ten seconds, but found no person in sight. The policeman on the beat had just passed up the street. He heard the crash but did not arrive in time to see the person who had smashed the window. On the lower portion of the window were found traces of mud which led to the belief that the instrument used had been a man's boot. The cigars and tobacco in the window were damaged, but whether by hands or by falling glass could not be determined.

Only two weeks of cold weather have been experienced there this winter, and the weather which takes the place of the eastern winter seems much more healthful than the latter. Mr. Long's friends here will be pleased to learn that he and his family are enjoying excellent health. He writes that he already has his garden in.

PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL WING SAFE, AND BETTER EQUIPPED THAN IT WAS BEFORE THE FIRE

After three months' attention at the hands of a repair crew, the burned wing of the Provincial Hospital in a greatly improved condition will leave the hands of Contractor James Myles this week.

Not only is the wing ready for occupation but it shows a vast improvement over its condition previous to the fire. This as much apparent in the portion where the church and dormitories are situated as in the fine new laundry, power house and electric plant.

Between the main building and the big wing which was burned, a brick barrier has been erected from cellar to roof. On each of the three stories large fire proof doors separate the wing from the main building. This precaution is sure to prove a strong safeguard for the main building should another fire break out in the wing.

Amusement Hall. Very pleasing to the eye is the large room on the second floor which will be utilized as a church and amusement hall. The room is 32 feet in length and occupies the full width of the wing. Its walls are pierced at frequent intervals on both sides by large and handsome windows which give the hall a very bright and cheerful appearance. This is enhanced by a fine birch floor and steel ceilings and half walls tinted in cream and lavender. Each floor is furnished with up-to-date toilet arrangements. A bathroom for the matron is located on the second floor. Also on the second floor is a handsome tiled lavatory for the attendants, and the third floor has a large bathroom, and a closet. All of these are tiled and fitted in the most modern manner. The comfort of the attendants has been considered in this as in all the other arrangements.

A Large Dormitory. Corresponding in dimensions to the church, the dormitory for male nurses on the third floor is a beautiful dormitory. It is cheerful and sanitary, and forms a great improvement over the former sleeping apartments in the wing.

In the rear of the dormitory are apartments for the nurse in charge; closets and clothes rooms for the use of the attendants.

The Kitchen. The kitchen which was also located in the burned wing has been thoroughly repaired and fitted with improvements. Mrs. Hetherington, the matron expresses herself as very well pleased with the smoothness of the arrangements. From the kitchen on the first floor, to the fourth floor, is a treproof dumb waiter shaft in which runs a large double-decked waiter, which will greatly facilitate the handling of all kinds of stores. The apparatus is indeed almost large enough to serve as a passenger elevator. In all parts of the building fire protection has received a prominent share of attention. Steel ceilings have been put in throughout the main building and in the passageways along which the sleeping rooms are situated. A hip roof has been put in at the juncture of the main building and the wing.

Tenders for Other Repairs. Used for the laundry and power house is a three story building forty-five feet square. This was completely gutted by the fire, and is yet to be repaired. Mr. H. H. Most has drawn plans for the repairs, and tenders are now coming in for the work, which is soon to be commenced and is to be rushed to completion. This building formerly contained dining, sleeping rooms and baths for the help. Some slight change will be made in the arrangements, but the building will be utilized for practically the same purposes.

The Laundry Splendidly Equipped. The Laundry Splendidly Equipped. Mr. Laundy Campbell, the engineer of the institution is enthusiastic over the improvements in his department, which have followed the fire. The new $4,000 laundry plant is in splendid working order, and the improved brand of machinery and its well calculated arrangement are proving very economical both of labor and space. Two new washing machines of the largest capacity manufactured are installed. A big tumbler for separating the clothes and two large metal drying closets are among the equipment.

The electric ironing machine takes a sheet or blanket at a turn, and does its work perfectly and in very short time. Steam mixers for assimilating soap and chemicals are used. To carry the tubs from the washers to the wringers, a tramway has been built. The laundry plant is furnished with power by a h. p. engine.

The Electrical Dynamoes. A striking feature of the institution's mechanical outfit is the dynamo room. It is large, well-lighted and strongly built with everything arranged in excellent order. It has been found possible to rebuild the two dynamoes which went through the fire, and they furnish the 700 incandescents used in the building with power which produces a strong and steady light.

In this room has been placed a handsome switchboard of large proportions. This, with the switches which are now installed in each ward lessens the amount of power required and brings it under better control.

A visitor to the hospital cannot fail to be impressed by the well-advised supervision which is ever used by the institution for the care of the unfortunate inmates and those who attend them.

THE PROVINCIAL DISCIPLINES HOUSE ADJOURNS

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., April 8.—The House adjourned for the Easter recess this evening at 5 o'clock and resumes on Tuesday afternoon. The balance of supply was discussed this afternoon and when one breaks in which there was excitement. This was when Mr. of Westmorland who had been a petty, copying criticism attacked the motion under discussion, in which the Government had taken the affairs of the province during the year. The chairman, Mr. Spruell, him to order for straying away from the motion under discussion. Provincial Secretary Plummering to Copp and handled him with gloves to such an extent that the members of Westmorland complained that Plummering was too harsh in his criticism of the Government. The criticism of Mr. Copp's was all that could be desired. Though the Government should give a reasonable amount of fire insurance on public buildings. There was, however, very little interest in the House proceeding today and the attendance was Premier Hazen and most of the members left for their homes tonight. A delegation composed of Murdoch and Fred Stevens and Stephen, appeared before the Government and urged a grant to the agricultural society formed in lotte county and which will hold an exhibition at St. Stephen's all. Favorable consideration was given the request. Fredericton, April 8.—The met at three o'clock. Hon. M. Mead presented the report of the Standing Rules Committee, mending several bills to favor consideration and reporting a bill No. 55.

SIX HUNDRED BY FIRE IN

Manchester, N. H., April 8.—A tenement house district just south of the business section of the city came near being wiped out today by a fire which was stopped by the combined efforts of the firemen. Six other cities after it had been fifty wooden three and four buildings, sent 600 men, women and children, many of whom were taken to the world, and caused a loss of about $150,000.

Starting in a tenement which was every woman and child was at in nearby shoe shops, the fire driven by a fierce wind from the west of Elm and Auburn streets through two city squares, burnt Elm, Auburn, Cornhill and North. Nearly every house in this area destroyed, although the flames did a few buildings.

Many Smaller Fires. There were many smaller fires since the main area but these were not only put out, but the entire street to the leeward of the fire. Some distance was thoroughly down by the out-of-town firemen. The city saved from an extension as that which prevailed a sea under almost similar conditions.

The fire broke out a few minutes after 11 a. m. and, within the hour had become so threatening that was summoned from Concord, Nashua and later from Rochester, Portland and Lowell.
