Church Opening.

The new Methodist church at Brookville will be opened on Sunday next. Services will be held in the morning, afternoon and evening. It is expected that quite a number of city people who summer at Brookville will drive out for the opening of the council which the Mayor intends to call in a few days will take up the question of the West Side transfer once again, and consider whether it will be advisable to yield to the C. P. R. on all points and give it the 40 acre lot without a stipulation that the land should be used to develop the harbor facilities.

Another matter which will probably be dealt with at the same time is the question of purchasing the ferry boat Annex, from the Pennsylvania rail-way. A communication has been received as yet. Her paddle shaft is said to be about an inch smaller in diameter than the Canadian laws call for, while she would be required to carry 20 pounds in the system of the committee in charge are G. Earle Logan, convener; Lewis Lingley, W. H. Harrison, Charles Robinson, and President Fairweather.

SPLIT DEVELOPS AT LIBERAL PRIMARIES

Down by Mr. Lantalum's Ward--Trouble in Prince

The creditors of Merritt Bros. & Co. met yesterday afternoon in the office of H. H. Pickett, the assignee. There was a large attendance of creditors, and from the reports of the condition of affairs it would seem as if the loss it to be sustained by them is heavy. The assignment to Mr. Pickett was confirmed and Charles E. Macmichael was appointed Inspector. J. D. Pollard Lewin acted as secretary of the meeting. The report showed that there was a very small stock of goods, and book debts were also light.

In all the assets will not exceed $5000, while the liabilities are $32,000. No proposition was made at the meeting, and the business will be wonted up at one. The stock of groceries, etc., will be sold at the store this morning at 10 o'clock, having been an esteed under a distraint warrant for rent. The creditors are all local firms. The meeting adjourned until April 16th.
