THE RUSSELL CASE IS NOW WITH JUDGE

Lengthy Addresses by Counsel on Both Sides Marked Last Day of the Protracted Law Suit.

MR. MACMASTER ELOQUENT

Montreal, Oct. 10.—The end of the long drawn out Russell conspiracy case came today shortly after 5 o'clock, after five somewhat lengthy addresses by opposing counsel.
The final session was opened after lunch by A. Geoffroy, senior counsel for the defense. He took up the whole matter in detail and argued that so far as the Patterson banking game affair was concerned the Pinkertons had acted throughout in good faith and furnished their reports for what they were worth as coming from the Hotel Maryland and the persons mentioned and had offered to make more exact inquiries as to Patterson and the Allen woman. He further claimed that nothing of malice or bad faith had been alleged against the defendants in this matter, but only mismanagement. Mr. Geoffroy went over the getting of reports from the Hotel Maryland and declared that nothing had been done to prevent Mr. Russell from going further for more reliable information. But that on the contrary he had been urged to do so and this tremendous action was based on such material.
At the second phase of the case with the demand for $200,000 damages Mr. Geoffroy said that this had for its essential element the attempt to ov-erpower Mr. Russell in New York and to secure his incarceration as insane, and a renewal of this attempt at Montreal. He claimed that there was no evidence as to the latter, so the whole thing resolved itself into an attempt at New York to carry out in Montreal on the 20th.
Going through the evidence, Mr. Geoffroy contended that while the claim for damages rested on statements that attempt was made to put Russell in a lunatic asylum and that he was mentally insane, all that had been proved was an attempt to have him examined as to his sanity by the best alienists who could be secured and have him placed in a private sanitarium if it was found necessary. There was, he argued, a tremendous difference between the allegation and the condition revealed by the proof.

MR. BORDEN'S CABINET IS REGARDED AS BUSINESS MAN'S ADMINISTRATION

Honest, Capable and Progressive Government for Canada is Now Assured

New Ministry Said Farewell to Earl Grey, Yesterday -- Ottawa Has an Interesting Day--Views of Leading Canadian Newspapers on the Premier's Selection of Colleagues.

Special to The Standard.
Ottawa, Oct. 10.—Canada again has an administration. On the same day the Borden cabinet took the oath of office and held its first meeting. Earl Grey quitted Ottawa to sail for England. The entry of the new ministers into power and the remarkably spontaneous and kindly farewell to His Excellency made it a day of curious and various interest in the capital.
The new ministers gathered at Mr. Borden's house at 10.30 o'clock, the one absentee being Mr. Martin Burritt, who has not yet left his home at Grand Forks, B. C. They drove to Rideau Hall and at noon was performed the ceremony of swearing in, each minister taking two oaths, one as a member of the privy council and one as minister of his particular department. The oaths were administered by the clerk of the privy council, Rodolphe Boudreau, formerly Sir Wilfrid Laurier's private secretary. His Excellency was present attended by his chief secretary, and aides. After the Conservative leaders had formally become his constitutional advisors, the Governor General congratulated them.
The newly constituted cabinet repaired to the Rideau club where Mr. Borden entertained the members at luncheon. In the evening, Mr. Perley entertained his colleagues at dinner at the Rideau Club.
A brief cabinet council ensued lasting from 3 to 4 o'clock. It was for the most part an organization affair, the only business transacted was discussion of the bye-elections including the date of the writ and this was not concluded.
An odd circumstance was that the notice to the clerk of the crown in chancery informing him that ten members of parliament have vacated their seats by accepting offices of emolument under the crown, had to be signed by Mr. Perley or Mr. Kemp they as ministers without portfolio, have not vacated their seats and so would give the notice.
Another circumstance of interest is Mr. Burritt's case. He was journeyed from his home in the mountains of British Columbia, got sworn in, vacated his seat, journeyed back for reelection, and returned to Ottawa. After the first cabinet minister to be sworn in by the Duke of Connaught.
The council broke up to attend the farewell to Earl Grey.
His Excellency drove through the city to take a special train, he had an escort of the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards. At the station there was a guard of honor of the Governor General's Foot Guards and a salute brigade of field artillery. That was all the ceremony. The streets were lined with people who showed warm esteem for His Excellency. At the station there was a large attendance of personal friends, the new cabinet ministers being conspicuous. Their Excellencies were visibly affected at the heartiness of the good-byes.
George Taylor, M. P., the honorary chief whip of the Conservative party today presented to Mr. Borden a walking stick which Sir John Macdonald gave to him many years ago.
The council meets tomorrow at 11 o'clock. On Thursday the new cabinet will go to Quebec to greet the Duke of Connaught.
It has transpired that the officials responsible for the reception of the Duke of Connaught had omitted to invite Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Lady Laurier, or to make any provision for their presence. This came to the knowledge of Mr. Borden and he at once issued instructions to the secretary of state's department that the former premier and Lady Laurier were to be invited and that a government car was to be placed at their disposal. Sir Wilfrid Laurier however, has decided not to attend, feeling that this would be the preferable course under the circumstances.
A curious circumstance is that two ministers, Mr. Rogers and Mr. Cochrane, were born in the same village of Clarencelle in the County of Argenteuil. The county is represented by Mr. Perley, another cabinet minister.

PRESS COMMENT ON THE CABINET

The Conservative and Independent newspapers throughout Canada are inclined to view Mr. Borden's cabinet as an assemblage of keen business men who will give Canada an administration wise, honest and progressive. Among the leading editorial opinions are the following:

THE HALIFAX HERALD.

Special to The Standard.
Halifax, Oct. 10.—In speaking editorially of Mr. Borden's cabinet the Herald (Can.), tomorrow in the course of its leading article, will say: "The abundance of splendid material from which to choose his cabinet was undoubtedly a great advantage. The difficulty in the formation of his cabinet. In his final selection, made with a master hand, the premier surrounds himself with the most representative and best all round body of men ever constituting the government of Canada. A cabinet of practical business men, rather than politicians, who will command the entire confidence of the independent voters of the Dominion, and the Nationalists of Quebec, as well as the Conservative party; and will also compel the respect of what remains of the once great Liberal party."

"The administration of the department of railways will bring Hon. Frank Cochrane into direct and very close touch with the people of the Maritime Provinces; and the Herald believes that his businesslike administration will promptly bring him the same degree of confidence from the people of the seaboard provinces that he has enjoyed in the great province of Ontario. It is of course, to be greatly regretted that the Nova Scotia cabinet representation is reduced owing to prospective loss of parliamentary representation but the prestige of being represented by the Prime Minister makes up for any loss of cabinet representation."

"Though the new minister of trade and commerce is allotted to Ontario, Hon. George E. Foster is, and may still be counted, a Maritime man."

"An evidence of Mr. Borden's liberalism and liberality of view is his selection of Hon. W. T. White, a lifelong Liberal, and one of the ablest of the Liberal business men of the Dominion as the representative of the great army of Liberals, who separated from their party on the vital issue decided by the people last month. In doing this the Premier has still further established himself as the leader of the nation and only one ballot was taken. The Italian was sentenced to serve from five to ten years in Sing Sing."

"Constable's conviction marks a successful first step in the efforts of the police to break up the so called black hand organization in this city."

GERMANY IS UNWILLING TO END THE WAR

If Turkey will Not Interfere with Transport of Italian Expedition to Tripoli Fighting May Cease.

WHEAT HELD UP.

Berlin, Oct. 10.—Although Germany finds that the time is not ripe for an offer of mediation to end the war between Turkey and Italy, pending the completion of the Italian occupation of Tripoli, the government is endeavoring further to localize the hostilities and prevent fighting in the Red, Aegean and Adriatic Seas.
If Turkey will give assurances that she will not interfere in the transport of the expedition of Tripoli there is hope that all other hostilities will be suspended. The prolongation of war movements outside Tripoli presents great risks to international shipping, and it is even feared that the service on the Suez Canal might be interrupted. The landing of the Italian expedition is said to present difficulties not anticipated. The weather on the Tripoli coast has interfered and it will be at least a week probably before Italy is ready to start with Turkey.
It is learned in diplomatic circles that Italy is probably willing to indemnify Turkey to the extent of about $12,000,000, but it is a question whether she is quite willing to recognize Turkish suzerainty over Tripoli in any form. Popular feeling and desire to avoid future sources of conflict may have changed the attitude that Italy held before the war began.

Wheat Held Up.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 10.—As a result of the Turco-Italian war about 450,000 tons of goods have accumulated at Taganrog, on the north shore of the Sea of Azov, and neighboring harbors. Seventy per cent. of the total amount is wheat intended for the most part for Italy.

Refugees From Tripoli.

Malta, Oct. 10.—The Italian destroyer Borea which arrived here yesterday escorting the steamer Assyria carrying many Turkish refugees from Tripoli, left port this morning. She was permitted to take on only sufficient water to carry her to Syracuse.
The Italian consul raised objections to the action of the British authorities contending that as the Borea was escorting a steamer filled with passengers who were liable to mutiny and seize the ship, she could not be considered as being employed for a warlike purpose and she should therefore have free use of a neutral port.
The refugees who were permitted to land will take another steamer for Constantinople. They complained bitterly of ill treatment at the hands of the Italians, saying that they had not been supplied with sufficient food or water. A second Italian steamer with 150 Turks, their wives and families, departed from Tripoli on steamers which are now leaving daily.

LARGE MILLS AT MILLTOWN PREY OF FIRE

Two Mills Owned by James Murchie Sons Co, Burned Last Night—Loss Estimated at $12,000.

FIRE CAUSE UNKNOWN.

St. Stephen, Oct. 10.—A serious fire occurred at Milltown, Me., this evening involving the loss of two mills belonging to the James Murchie Sons Co. The fire which started from some unknown cause, spread so quickly that almost as soon as the flames were discovered, they had enveloped the big structures. The loss is placed at $12,000 with insurance of about $15,000.
The two mills were situated side by side on what is known as the lower dam and were operated by water power. They had been working all day and stopped for the night at 9 o'clock. The fire was first discovered by some one passing along the street, and broke out about 9 o'clock.
The remains of Miss Agnes Lawlor, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Lawlor, who died suddenly of acute Bright's disease, while staying relatives in Lowell, were brought to her former home by train today. The funeral will take place from the Church of the Holy Rosary tomorrow afternoon. She was a young lady of bright and cheerful disposition and her death had saddened many of her relatives.
Frank C. Murchie, mayor of Milltown, is critically ill with pleurisy. The dredge Beacon Bar arrived in port today to do some work for the C. P. R.

To the church "Known as Baptist, in Boylston, N. S.," $1,000 is left.

DE LABARRA OUT OF PRESIDENTIAL RACE

Because of Decision of Mexican Senate He Will Be Unable to Run for Vice-Presidency.

Mexico City, Oct. 10.—The Catholic presidential electors face the probability of being forced to relinquish the candidacy of President De Labarra for the vice-presidency because of his ineligibility. They have refused to regard his repeated declaration that he would not accept the post and appeared determined to elect him if possible in spite of his objections. By the action of Congress, however, De Labarra will doubtless be eliminated. The Senate yesterday approved an amendment to the constitution making it illegal for a President or a Vice-president to be re-elected or chosen for other high office. There is little doubt that the electors will follow the example of the Senators when the measure reaches them. According to the announcement of the Catholic parties central committee, the result will be to throw their support in the electoral college to Francisco Vasquez Gomez.

A MURDER MYSTERY IN WHITE PLAINS, N.Y.

Italian Killed by Man in Streets of Town—Young Girl May Furnish Clue to the Mystery.

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 10.—After Rocco Suracolo was murdered here today the police found in the room he had occupied at a local hotel, a young Italian girl and through her they hope to learn why Suracolo was killed. Two men met Suracolo on the street this morning and after a quarrel one of them pulled a revolver and shot him dead as he was running away.

The girl's name is Marie Pisqua, and the police say Suracolo brought her here. They believe that the man who killed him were relatives of the girl who followed Suracolo here for vengeance.

The Pisqua girl who said she was 15 years of age, revealed the dead man's name, but would tell nothing more. From addresses written in Suracolo's pocketbook the police believe he came here from Milton, or Wilton, Mass. The murderers escaped.

SHE ONCE TRIED TO SUE COL. ROOSEVELT

New York, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Ida Von Claussen, who once started suit for a million dollars damages against Theodore Roosevelt, and others, because of an alleged conspiracy to keep her from being presented at the Royal Court of Sweden, and who has gained notoriety in a variety of other ways was sent to the Psychopathic ward of Bellevue Hospital today for a five days' observation as to her sanity.

ROYALISTS HAVE HOPE OF SUCCESS

Monarchists have Better Facilities for Obtaining Food and Supplies During the Attack on Portugal.

Lisbon, Portugal, Oct. 10.—The Royalists expect another column advancing through the Minho Valley to create a diversion and lead to a division of the government's troops which are now concentrating. The Monarchists keep their line of communication with Spain open, and are able to receive recruits and supplies from sources which the Republicans cannot attack without a quarrel with Spain. The invaders are able to obtain plenty of food from the countryside but few men join them.

Two hundred peasant women, led by priests have been marching from village to village singing hymns and cheering for the church, seeking thus to inspire the men with fighting zeal. Their efforts, however, have been generally futile.

The government is placing sailors from the warships in the front as much as possible. Not because it doubts its loyalty, but because they are more relentless in fighting the Royalists than are the soldiers, who are likely at any time to encounter old comrades among the officers and men of the army.

The resignation of General Castro from the warships in the front as much as possible. Not because it doubts its loyalty, but because they are more relentless in fighting the Royalists than are the soldiers, who are likely at any time to encounter old comrades among the officers and men of the army.

Boston, Oct. 10.—The legal domicile of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the founder of the Christian Science denomination was at the time of her death in Concord, New Hampshire, according to the ruling of Associate Justice James M. Norton, of the Massachusetts supreme judicial court today.
