HAD VERY BAD COUGH

Tickling Sensation
In Throat.

Could Not Sleep At Night.

A bad cough, with that distressing tickling sensation in the throat, is one of the most aggravating coughs a person can possibly have.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will quickly stop that tickling in the throat which causes the dry cough that keeps you awake at night, for the simple reason that it is so rich in the healing virtues of the Norway pine tree, it cannot help but do otherwise.

Miss C. Danielson, Bowmans River, Man., writes: "Last fall I had a very bad cough and a tickling sensation in my throat. It was so bad I could not sleep at night, so I went to a druggist and told him I wanted something for my cold and he advised me to try Dr.
Wood's Norway Pine Syrup which I did, and after taking one bottle I was completely cured. Let me recommend Dr.
Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to any one who suffers from a cough or throat irritation."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.
Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SCOTCHMEN

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—The visiting

YACHT RACES
TO BE SAILED
NEXT SUMMER

Chicago, Jan. 17.—An international series of yacht races will be sailed here next summer.

G. H. Atkin and Ogden T. McClurg, acting for the Chicago Yacht Club, secured the event at a conference with members of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club at Toronto. The announcement was made last night after their return.

The Patricia will be the challenging boat. A new $10,000 racer is to be built by the Chicago yachtmen for the contests.

It will be the first participation in international contests by local yachtmen since 1901.

TORONTO
OBJECTS
TO FIGHT

Toronto, Jan. 18.—Brutal in the extreme, was the way the police of this city characterized the near prize fight between Flynn and Williams last night. From the rumblings heard in police circles this morning there is a probability of Toronto losing the reputation it has so recently gained as a boxing center where the bouts approached close upon the real article.

MIKE MURPHY AS HE REALLY

IS---BY GREATEST PUPIL

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—The condition of "Mike" Murphy, veteran trainer of the University of Pennsylvania, has taken a turn for the worse, and it is a grave question if he ever will be able to take an active part in athletic training again. It is a certainty that he will not be able to train the track team of Pennsylvania, and it is doubtful if he will be able to accompany the Olympic team to Stockholm.

In connection with the above despatch the following sketch of Murphy's achievements by one of his greatest pupils, is of interest:

BY ALVIN GRAENZLEIN, Athletic Coach, University, Michigan University.

I cannot help feel that Mike Murphy is the greatest trainer in the country. I never worked under Keene Fitzpatrick or Jerry Monkley, but I would place them next to Murphy.
It is not because I have worked under him that I feel this way. Look at his record.

He was the pioneer college trainer. Back in 1893 he was training Yale teams and since has alternated between Yale and Pennsylvania. He trained the New York Athletic club teams and twice was in charge of American Olympic teams.

This means that he has been at two of the most successful universities (considering success in an athletic standpoint) and has had charge of some of the best athletes in the world.
With his power of observation he has picked up many points from them that otherwise would have escaped him.

No credit is due me, but he grasped its advantage and we went to work to perfect it. Now it is the accepted method. Others probably handled the same way before my time, but I was the first Murphy had seen, and he took the scheme at once.

I can scarcely believe Murphy is to leave Penn and they will be making a grave mistake if he is permitted to leave. He is a fine conditioner of men and he knows football.

Murphy is a genius and that's all there is to it. He and Yost are in a class by themselves. They have many points in common. Both are keen students of human nature and it is remarkable that they are two of the greatest family men I ever knew.
