

SYDNEY COAL TO BE SHIPPED TO MEDITERRANEAN.

Statement Made in Ottawa That It Will Be Begun Soon.

DR. MONTIZAMBERT

Will Start Next Week on Tour of Quarantine Stations--Half a Million Bushels of Oats for the War Office Ordered--$300,000 Truro Company.

Ottawa, Nov. 1--(Special)--Dr. Montizambert will leave next week to make his annual tour of the quarantine stations on the Atlantic coast.

A prominent Nova Scotia here today says that the Dominion Coal Company will be shipping coal soon to the Mediterranean. Sir Christopher Furness is given as an authority that this is commercially feasible.

It is practically settled that the dominion will exhibit at the Wolverhampton, England, fair next year. A portion of the Canadian exhibit at Glasgow will be utilized. The Canadian exhibit at Buffalo will be brought back to Canada.

Prof. Robertson, of the department of agriculture, has placed a war office order for oats in Alberta, N. W. T. The order is for over 500,000 bushels of oats.

John Stanfield, manufacturer; Frank Stanfield, manufacturer; Harold Milford Stanfield, physician; Lydia Stanfield, widow; Emma Maria Stanfield, accountant; Frances Jane Stanfield, spinster; Annie Emily Stanfield, spinster; and George Lemuel Fisher, accountant, all of Truro, N. S., have applied for incorporation as the Truro Knitting Mills Company, with a capital of $300,000, and with Truro as the chief place of business.

Robert Surtout, engineer of the Ottawa improvement commission, has instructed his solicitor to take a libel suit against the Ottawa Citizen. The libel is said to be contained in an interview published in the Citizen with Mayor Morris. This interview, Surtout says, is an attack on him personally.

Lord Strathcona was in the city today.

QUARRELLED WITH SON; MURDERED MOTHER.

George Briggs, Maddened in Dispute with Young Cleveland Jones, Went to Latter's Home and Shot Mrs. Jones Dead.

Bellows Falls, Vt., Nov. 2--After a quarrel between Cleveland Jones, 15 years old, and George H. Briggs, a neighbor, in Langdon, N. H., young Jones' mother, Mrs. Chanancy Jones, was shot and killed this morning by Briggs. Briggs gave himself up later in the day.

Briggs was driving home some cattle this morning from a pasture near the Jones house, when Cleveland Jones came into the field and Briggs alleges that the boy purposely frightened the cattle but Jones claims that he did not intentionally scare them. A lively dispute is said to have ensued in which hard names were called by both. Finally Jones made a remark that angered Briggs so that, the boy says, Briggs said with terrible oath, "I'll clean out the whole lot of you."

Briggs then went to his own house and, after securing a revolver, went to the Jones house. From the highway he yelled that he would clean out the first one who came out of the house. Mrs. Jones and her five children, of whom Cleveland Jones is the eldest, were in the house. Cleveland Jones says that Briggs then came to the back door. The mother went to meet him in the hall, when young Jones says Briggs fired his revolver and Mrs. Jones ran into the kitchen crying, "My God, he has shot me."

Briggs, according to the boy, the rushed into the kitchen, and shot Mrs. Jones in the back twice. She ran into the sitting room and fell to the floor dead. Young Jones grabbed Briggs and he says Briggs fired two shots at him, neither taking effect. The revolver by this time was empty and the children succeeded in escaping. Cleveland Jones went to the office of A. S. Cram, a justice of the peace, and said Briggs had shot his mother. Mr. Cram at once drove to Leeds, N. H., where he went to the office of lawyer Smith, to have papers made out against Briggs. While he was there Briggs himself came into the office and said that he would give himself up, at the same time handing to Mr. Cram a revolver, supposed to be the one the shooting was done with. Briggs was persuaded to return to his home with Mr. Cram. Deputy Sheriff Boyd, of Claremont, N. H., took Briggs into custody. He took the prisoner to Newport, N. H., where he will be held in the county jail pending the sitting of the grand jury at Newport next Tuesday. Briggs is 45 years old and lived in Langdon with a wife and two children, having some three years ago.

NEW HAMPSHIRE TOWN RAVAGED BY FLAMES.

Business Portion of Lisbon Gone; Loss Fully $100,000.

Lisbon, N. H., Nov. 3--Starting in the morning, fire destroyed a large part of the business section of this town today. The inflammable material in the mill made a tremendous blaze and the flames quickly spread to the adjoining buildings on Main street. Not only were the principal business blocks burned, but several dwelling houses also were swept before the fire. The burned buildings include Brigham's hotel, the bank building, Cogswell & Oliver's store, a block owned by Mrs. Chas. Parker, the store of the Fred Parker Co., Glover's livery stable, H. C. Libbey & Co.'s feed mill and New England's great mill, besides two or three halls. The total loss will amount to fully $100,000 with insurance of between $60,000 and $80,000. The telephone office was destroyed so that communication with outside points is difficult.

The fire was the most disastrous in the history of this town. At a late hour tonight it was said the loss would probably reach $150,000. The bank block was owned by the Lisbon National and Savings banks, and on the upper floor was looted the lodge rooms of the I. O. O. F. The cause of the fire is unknown.

KING'S SPEECH ON RETURN OF ROYAL COUPLE.

His Majesty Replies to Address by Agents General of the Colonies.

London, Nov. 2--The royal train arrived from Portsmouth at Victoria rail station at 12.36 p. m. Intense crowds of people gathered there to welcome the royal party.

All the way to Marlborough House the route was well lined and several parts were profusely decorated in colonial colors, while the Stars and Stripes and the Danish flag were also frequently seen. There were 4,000 troops on duty at Victoria station. The colonial agents presented an address to the Duke of Cornwall and York, who replied in about the same terms as he used earlier in the day at Portsmouth, when he dilated on the enjoyment he had derived from his trip and his gladness at seeing his native land again after his deep and interesting journey, at every point of which he had been profoundly impressed by the universal declaration of loyalty to the throne.

The agents general of the colonies also presented an address to the king, who handed him a written reply, as follows: "I thank you for the loyal and dutiful address on the return of my beloved son and daughter-in-law from their visit to the portions of my realms of which you are the representatives. It was not without natural anxiety and hesitation that I sanctioned the departure of the heir apparent to my throne on a voyage which involved many months of separation. But it was my earnest desire to give effect to the wishes of my late revered mother and to the aspirations of my loyal subjects in the colonies, of whose devotion and patriotism I have received most signal proof in the splendid services they have rendered to the empire in South Africa. And I am fully repaid by the complete success which attended the visit and by the manifestations of devotion and loyalty which the presence of the duke and duchess everywhere evoked."

The members of the royal family and their suites rode in open carriages. The king wore a field marshal's uniform; the Duke of Cornwall and York wore the uniform of a rear-admiral, and Prince Edward of York was dressed in sailor's clothes.

King Toasts the Duke and Duchess. London, Nov. 4--At a dinner on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert last Friday evening, King Edward, toasting the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, gave a sketch of their tour. Referring to their arrival at Cape Town, his majesty said: "There, unfortunately, the war is still prolonged; but we firmly pray for the re-establishment of peace and prosperity."

In conclusion, the king said: "In all the colonies thus visited they fulfilled their mission, expressing the gratitude of the mother country for the aid generously accorded her in the hour of need, and they were everywhere received with a cordiality of loyal enthusiasm which could not have been surpassed. The accounts of these receptions have touched me deeply, and I trust the practical results will be to draw closer the strong ties of mutual affection which bind together the old motherland and her numerous thriving offshoots."

The Duke of Cornwall, in a felicitous response, testified to the "intense and enthusiastic loyalty shown by the people everywhere to the king and the throne," and also to "deep love of the mother country, which was everywhere spoken of as 'home.'"

BRITISH SUFFER HEAVY LOSS BY BOER ATTACK.

Colonel Benson and Several Other Officers Killed, Fifty-four Privates Dead, and One Hundred and Sixty Wounded--Two Guns Lost--Canadian Scouts Get Credit for Capture of Train Wreckers.

London, Nov. 2--Lord Kitchener has reported the war office a disaster to the British near Bethel, Eastern Transvaal, in which two guns were lost, several officers were killed or wounded and 54 men were killed and 160 wounded. The following is the text of Lord Kitchener's despatch, dated Pretoria, Nov. 1: "I have just heard of a severe attack made on the rear guard of Colonel Benson's column, when about 20 miles north-west of Bethel, near Brakenlaage, during a thick mist."

"The strength of the enemy is reported to have been 1,000. They rushed two guns with the rear guard, but it is uncertain whether they were able to remove them. "I fear our casualties were heavy. Col. Benson was wounded, but not severely. A relieving column will reach him this morning."

Later Lord Kitchener telegraphed as follows: "Col. Barter, who marched from the constabulary line yesterday, reached Benson's column early this morning (Friday) unopposed. He reports that Col. Benson died of his wounds, and that the following are the other casualties in the following order: Killed: "Col. E. Guinness. "Major F. D. Murray. "Captain M. W. Lindsay. "Captain W. T. Theobald. "Lieut. E. V. J. Bosche. "Lieut. R. E. Shephard. "Second Lieut. A. J. Corlett. Died of His Wounds: "Captain Eyre Lloyd."

Lord Kitchener then gives the names of 13 other officers who were wounded, most of them severely, and announces that 54 non-commissioned officers and men were killed and 160 wounded, adding that four of the latter have since died of their wounds. The despatch then says: "I assume that the guns have been recovered and that the enemy have withdrawn, but I have no further details. "I deeply regret the loss of Col. Benson and the officers and men who fell with him. In Benson, the service loses a most gallant and capable officer, who invariably led his column with marked success and judgment. "The fighting was at very close quarters and maintained with great determination by both sides. The enemy suffered heavily but I have not yet received a reliable estimate. "The Boers retired east."

SOME OF BENSON'S WORK. Captured 37 Boers on October 22--Repulsed Attack Three Days' Later. London, Nov. 2--Col. Benson had been some time operating in the vicinity of Bethel, which is northeast of Standerton. He surprised a Boer laager October 22, near Trichardfontein, taking 37 prisoners. Three days later, according to Lord Kitchener's report at the time, after a long night march, the commandos under Grootelaar and Erasmus heavily attacked Benson's rear guard and flank at Yr-brakfontein, but were easily driven away. "Whether this was the attack which resulted so disastrously or whether the Boers, who had been repulsed, took advantage of the mist to renew the attack, is still unexplained. Lord Kitchener does not give the date of the Bethel engagement."

BOERS CAPTURED. Kewich by Night Surprise Takes 78 Prisoners. London, Nov. 1--A despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, received here today, says that Colonel Kewich, during a night surprise of Van Albert's larger, northeast of Rustenburg (60 miles west of Pretoria), captured 78 Boers. Amsterdam, Nov. 1--The Boer deputation here summoned Messrs. Leyds and Van Boschoten yesterday from Brussels, to consider despatches received from the Boer leaders in the field, stating that the fighting burghers are determined to make reprisals if the British continued hanging and shooting reprisals, and other despatches to the effect that the Boer authorities in South Africa affirm that the adoption of reprisals would be bad policy, and that, in order to strengthen their position, they request Mr. Kruger to let them know his opinion, because he still has the greatest hold on the minds of the burghers. The meeting lasted four hours and it was decided to advise Mr. Kruger to comply with the request of the Boer authorities and to take the opportunity of being the subject of British executions in South Africa before the European public in an open letter. Dr. Leyds has gone to Hillvansum to present the matter to Mr. Kruger.

CREDIT FOR CANADIANS. Capture of Train Wreckers Due to Major Ross and Scouts from Canada. Pretoria, Nov. 1--The successes of the past four days have accounted for 250 Boers. The capture of 17 supposed train wreckers by General Williams' column was effected chiefly by Major Ross and the Canadian scouts, who ran the party down over night and captured some of them at the first surprise. Others were chased for many miles until they were caught. A large quantity of dynamite was found in possession of the prisoners. Yesterday was the anniversary of the death of Prince Christian Victor, a grandson of Queen Victoria, and many wreaths were placed on his grave.

NORWEGIAN STEAMER ASHORE AT CAPE BRETON.

The Kong Haakon Full of Water at Isle Madame--Dahome Arrives at Halifax.

Halifax, Nov. 3--(Special)--The Norwegian steamer Kong Haakon, from Cape Breton for Cardiff, with deals, is ashore at Isle Madame, C. B., full of water. She struck some time Saturday night. Tug F. W. Roebing was dispatched to the scene from Margrave this morning. The steamer is 1,478 tons and was formerly the British steamer Earldale.

Furness line steamer Dahome, from London, arrived Saturday. She had a fairly good passage across and brought 23 first class passengers. The total number included three naval officers and 160 petty officers and men-of-war sailors. Of the detachment, 80 sailors are just from training ships and are now on their "first ship." Two officers and 143 of the petty officers and men-of-war are going to Bermuda here and the other officers and 29 men are going to Bermuda to look after the Boer prisoners. They will likely go to Bermuda on one of the ships of the fleet. The Dahome, after discharging 600 tons of cargo, will proceed for St. John at 3 o'clock.

JOHN E. REDMOND DECLARES POLICY OF IRISH LEAGUE.

To Make Government of Ireland by England Difficult, Dangerous, Impossible.

SPEECH IN NEW YORK. Welcomed by Large Number at Carnegie Hall--Bishop Clancy Eulogizes the Present Irish Parliamentary Party, as the Most Able Spokesmen of the Cause.

New York, Nov. 3--Irish Americans to the number of 3,000 or 4,000 gathered tonight at a reception given at Carnegie Hall, in honor of John E. Redmond, M. P., leader of the Irish Nationalist party in the British parliament. The reception was under the auspices of the Amalgamated Irish societies in New York, the Irish Nationalist Club and the United Irish League.

Mr. Redmond was accompanied by Patrick McHugh and Thomas O'Donnell, his fellow delegates. William Temple Blinn read a letter from Bishop Clancy of Elphin, who is visiting the fishing wharf, and is bringing in a verdict last night as follows: "That deceased, Charles McCauley, came to his death by a wound in the arm from a knife in the hands of the late William V. Baskirk, of Pughwash."

After an exhaustive examination of all day, the coroner's jury on the death of Charles McCauley, the victim of Friday morning's Pughwash fishing affray, brought in a verdict last night as follows: "That deceased, Charles McCauley, came to his death by a wound in the arm from a knife in the hands of the late William V. Baskirk, of Pughwash."
