his friends and his friends have done so much for him. A movement of the 18 Hanover street, Boston.

Mr. James I. Pelton.

DEAR SIR: We have been dealing in your Hypophosphites for about two years, and although the price seems high (none too high considering its virtues), we think it has succeeded better than any preparation we have ever handled, and cheerfully recommend it to all in need of a good medicine.

Yours respectfully,
Geo. C. GOODWIN & CO.

Portland Town Council.
A special meeting of the Council was held last evening, Comm. Stevens in the chair. The Finance Committee submitted estimates for the ensuing year, which amounted to $16,600. The Assessment Committee reported recommending that Const. Delaney be relieved from his taxes, as he did not assume the duties of the office, from which his income is derived, until after the assessment list was filed. The report was laid over for one week. Comm. Fellows again introduced his resolution in reference to paying Mala Legislature for an Act to enable the Town to raise money for the purpose was passed. A bill authorizing the Portland Civil Court to have jurisdiction in actions of debt to $100, and in actions of damage to $40, was ordered to be prepared.

It was resolved to petition the Legislature for a grant of $2,000 a year to keep Main street in repair.

The people have been so much imposed upon by several worthless Sarsaparillas, that we are glad to be able to recommend a preparation which can be depended on as containing the virtues of the real Sarsaparilla. It is worthy of the public confidence. Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures when anything cures the diseases that require an alterative medicine.

Wild Life in the Far West.
A volume bearing the above title has just been issued by a Hartford publishing house. The book gives numerous interesting details of life in the Far West in years gone past, when civilization had scarcely reached the land of the Indian. The author, Capt. James Hobbs, lived among the Indians, and knows whereof he writes. The book is a rare one, and is well worth the price of the book, which is a well known fact.

The book is printed on good paper and contains a large number of illustrations of the most interesting scenes of the book, with the author's own sketches of the people and the land. It is a well known fact that the book is a rare
book, which is a well known fact.

After considerable trouble he managed to get enough hat and umbrella together to go home with. Nothing could resist the mass of snow when it fell from slanting roofs. A prominent broker had taken the precaution to protect his back windows, which look out into a yard, with wooden pallings. An avalanche descended from his neighbor's roof, and the broker mourns the loss of a number of sashes and panes of glass; his office was filled with snow. These are but a few of the incidents, comical and serious, that might be mentioned. There were accidents happening all the afternoon and evening, to the delight of many who were amused at the misfortunes of their fellows.

Stealing from the Wharf.
James A. McKay, a youth under sixteen years of age, was given in charge by John McKay for stealing barrels from the South Wharf. The barrels had been landed from a schooner, and young Mc-Kay carried off seven and sold them. His mother appeared and said she was from the country and had only been in this city a short time. As to their moral condition she said they belonged to the Church of England. Her boy had got into bad company, and it was with a lot of other lads that the barrels were taken. The boy pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $5.

"Guard Line"—Special Notice.
With the view of diminishing the chances of collision, the steamers of this Line will henceforth take a specified course for all seasons of the year. On the outward passage from Queenstown to New York or Boston, crossing northward of 50° at 43 lat., or nothing to the north of 48. On the homeward passage, crossing the meridian of 50 at 42 lat., or nothing to the north of 42. Tickets for all steamers of this favorite Line can be secured at Hall & Hamilton's Ticket Agency.

Breaking with Intent to Enter.
This is the charge that will be brought against Arthur Campbell and Richard Dornerdy, at the Police Court. They are both offenders, having served several terms in the Penitentiary. Last night the police heard the crash of glass in Germain street, and found Campbell's second in the recess of Samuel Tufts' grocery store.
The shutters were off, and a large pane of glass had been smashed. A man was seen running away, and recognized as Dornerdy. This morning the last named went to the Police Court as a witness for Campbell, and was arrested on the same charge. Information was made by policeman McLaren and Samuel Tufts, and the trial will come off early next week. The two men bear about as bad character as it is possible for any two to bear. A. W.
Baile, Esq., is engaged to defend Campbell.

City Police Court.
The police court presented a solemn appearance this morning. It was cold, damp, and so dimly did the light stream through the dirty windows that it was almost impossible to distinguish any thing. Through a dozen places in the ceiling the rain had penetrated and poured down the walls. The air was foul, and the breath of half a hundred who had gathered in the court and stood outside the rail, made it still worse. It prompted the Magistrate to read a lecture on the spectacle presented by the persons who, morning after morning loaded round the court room. On five days when the air was pure the crowd could be tolerated, but a day like this it amounted almost to suffocation and the court must be cleared. It certainly is no wonder he spoke as he did, for a more dirty, disgraceful place to be dignified with the name of Court Room could not be imagined.

John Fraser, the Scotchman who was told to go to the St. Andrews Society, if he was a deserving man, yesterday, when he was at the station for protection, last night was arrested drunk in Britain st.
He was fined $4.

drunk and disorderly in Dock st., and was fined $6.

James Cunningham was arrested drunk in Russell st., and fined $4.

George Anderson, charged with the same offence in King st., was also fined $4.

Portland Police Court.
There was one case before the court this morning, a trial on a warrant issued in 1872. It charged Beverley Munroe with creating a disturbance in front of the engine house in August of the year named. It took longer to serve this warrant than it did one against the same person that was issued a few weeks ago.
A fine of $4, with $1.50 costs, was imposed.

Charlotte Election.
Yesterday was declaration day at St.
Andrews, and A. H. Gilmour was declared elected by 294 majority. Mr. Mc-Adam entered a protest against the return on the ground of bribery and undue influence. Then Mr. Gilmour had a paper prepared preferring like charges against Mr. McAdam.

bills were introduced as follows: by Crawford to authorize the non-resident electors of King's to vote at Rothesay; by Nowlan, to provide pay for Grand Jurors attending certain courts in the Province, and also a bill in further amendment of bill relating to the law of evidence; by Butler, to amend the act for the protection of Moose; by Napier, to authorize John Ferguson to erect a boom across the Nipigon.

After some discussion as to getting the matter before the House in the proper way, Mr. Girouard, moved that an order be made by D. G. Smith for the publication of the proceedings of the House during the present Session be referred to a Special Committee consisting of the Con-
