FIVE-MINUTE SERMONS FOR EARLY MASSES By the Paulist Fathers.

of reverence that we are to pay Him? What is that, among all religious practices, which He would have us do as a token of inner and outer reverences? Of course you know what I mean; you know that it is reverence for His Holy Name.

The name of God, and especially the name of Jesus, are set up as the Divine standard before which every man will prove his reverence for God. Cursers and swearers and blasphemers forget this. No sin is so common as profanity in its and swearers and blasphemers forget this.

No sin is so common as profanity in its various forms. Yet it shows a heart not only void of the fear of God, and of the love of God, but also, and worst of all, void of reverence for God. A man who habitually curses is penetrated with definance of the Divine Mejesty. Holy Scripture says that he has put on cursing like a garment, that it has entered in unto his bones. In the old law a blasphemer was stoned to death. And in our own times God often anticipates the wrath to come by sending sudden death upon profane men. I lately read in the papers that a man, standing at a saloon counter, cursed his own soul, and instantly sank down upon the floor stone dead. Many of you have doubtless heard or even seen such visitations of divine justice.

And it is in view of the secred obligation of the secred obligation of the secred obligation. The floor stone dead of the secred obligation in the floor stone dead of the secred obligation. The floor stone dead of the secred obligation in the floor stone dead of the secred obligation. have doubtless heard or even seen such visitations of divine justice.

And it is in view of the sacred obligation of reverence to God in His chosen symbol—which is His name and His Son's name—that although He had but ten commandments to give us, one of them was set apart to secure respectful speech when dealing with God: Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Brethren, you and I in future will he Brethren, you and I in future will be particularly careful to honor the sacred name of Jesus. Are you tempted? That name is a resistless charm against assaults name is a resistless charm against assaults of flesh, world or devil. Are you tired out? The name of Jesus is a restful and soothing influence. Are you sick? That holy name will strengthen you with supernatural vigor. I hope that when you come to die your last breath may utter that name of Jesus with deep confidence, and that our Lord will answer your dying sigh with an affectionate welcome into His heavenly court.

ourselves; the other, more subtle, more able to glide in unperceived, more reason-able, hides itself under the displeasure we feel at our own miseries—displeasure which, if it does not turn into contrition, turns into vexation. We are afflicted turns into vexation. We are afflicted that we cannot repose in ourselves; our conscience is a witness which we hear in conscience is a witness which we hear in spite of ourselves; we are angry at being so little because we have inherited the first guilty sentiment of the first father, and we would be gods. In this condition we reproach ourselves above all with the imperfections which depend least upon our will; and we love better to despair of ourselves than to condemn ourselves. We would willingly tax the Creator for not having gifted us more advantageously; we are almost jealous of the faculties and virtues of others. Thus love is weakened. virtues of others. Thus love is weakened, and egotism hides itself under the deceitdispleased with ourselves because we love ourselves too well. . . It may be the beginning of wisdom for a man to enter into himself; and, indeed, ancient and pagan wisdom knew this precept. But, if the man thus entering into himself is not to die there of shame and of disis not to die there or is name and of dis-couragement, there must descend into the prison a ray from above. There needs something which is not human, which, nevertheless, comes to visit a man in the solitude of his heart, and which sends him out of it that he may enter into action; this something is love. It is it alone which changes remorse into penitence, which fructifies sorrow and makes it come forth in generous resolutions; it is this which gives confidence, and by confidence courage; for this causes that view of our-selves to disappear, which confounds us before the view of God, with whom it clothes us, in whom it causes us to feel, to be, and to move: In ipso movemur et sumus: Who enlightens us with His and strengthens us with His

I next noticed a peculiar color and odor about the fluids I was passing—also that there were large quantities have been so blind I cannot understand! I consulted the best medical skill in the land. I visited all the famed mineral springs in America and travelled from Maine to California. Still I grew worse. No two physicians agreed as to my malady. One said I was troubled with spinal irritation, another, dyspepsia; another, heart disease; another, general debility; another, congestion of the base of the brain; and so on through a long list of common diseases. through a long list of common diseases, the symptoms of many of which I really the symptoms of many of which I really had. In this way several years passed, during which time I was steadily growing worse. My condition had really become pitiable. The slight symptoms I at first experienced were developed into terrible and constant disorders. My weight had been reduced from 207 to 130 pounds. My life was a burden to myself and friends. I could retain no food on my stomach, and lived wholly by injections. I was a living mass of pain. My pulse was uncontrollable. In my agony I frequently fell to the floor and clutched the carpet, and prayed for death! Morphine holy name will strengthen you with supernatural vigor. I hope that when you come to die your last breath may utter that name of Jesus with deep confidence, and that our Lord will answer your dying sigh with an affectionate welcome into His heavenly court.

TWO SORTS OF PRIDE.

BY FREDERIC OZANAM.

There are, according to me, two sorts of pride. One more gross, and from which we may easily escape—contentment with we may easily escape.

many remarkable cures of cases like my own which had come under his observation. As a practicing physician and a graduate of the schools, I derided the idea of any medicine outside the regular channels being in the least beneficial. So solicitous, however, was Dr. Foote, that I finally promised I would waive my prejudice. I began its use on the first day of June, 1881, and took it according to directions. At first it sickened me; but this I thought was a good sign for one in my debilitated condition. I continued to take it; the sickening sensation departed and I was finally able to retain food upon my stomach. In a few days I noticed a decided change for the better, as also did my wife and friends. My hiccoughs ceased and I experienced less pain than formerly. I was so rejoiced at this improved condition that, upon what I had believed but a few days before was my dying bed, I vowed, in the presence of my family and friends, should I recover I would both publicly and privately make known this remedy for the good of humanity, wherever and whenever I had an opportunity, and this letter is in fulfilment of that vow. My improvement was constant from that time, and in less than three months I had gained 26 pounds in flesh, became entirely free from pain and I believe I owe my life and present condition wholly to Warner's safe cure, the remedy which I used.

Since my recovery I have thoroughly re investigated the subject of kidney diffire investigated the subject of kidney diffi-culties and Bright's disease, and the truths developed are astounding. I therefore state deliberately and as a physician that I be-lieve more than one half the deaths which occur in America are caused by Bright's disease of the in America are caused by Bright's disease of the kidneys. This may sound like a rash statement, but I am prepared to verify it fully. Bright's disease has no distinctive features of its own, (indeed, it often develops without any pain whatever in the kidneys or their vicinity,) but has the symptoms of nearly every other common complaint. Hundreds of people die daily, whose burials are authorized by a physician's certificate as occurring from "Heart Disease," "Apoplexy. "Paralysis," "Spinal Complaint," "Rheumatism." "Pneumonia," and the other common complaints, when in reality it is from Bright's disease of the kidneys. Few physicians, and fewer people, realize the with best results.

Diseases of the Skin.

Most diseases of the skin arise from bad blood and lack of cleanliness, except when caused by grubs or insects. Erysip-clas, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Pimples and all Humors of the blood are curable by Bur-dock Blood Bitters, which purifies the Deafness.

The proprietors of Hagyard's Yellow Oil have bona fide certificates of some most remarkable cures of Deafness, by that unspical remedy for pain. Yellow Oil also cures Rheumatism, Sprains, Bruises, Sore Throat, and all inflammatory troubles.

Mr. John Magwood, Victoria Road, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a splendid medicine. My customers say they never used anything so effectual. Good results immediately follow its use. I know its value from personal experience, know its value from personal experience, having been troubled for 9 or 10 years with Dyspepsia, and since using it digestion goes on without that depressed feeling so well known to dyspeptics. I have no hesitation in recommending it in any case of Indigestion, Constipation, Heart-burn, or troubles arising from a disordered stomach."

Hoarseness and Loss of Voice. Public speakers and singers are often distressed with hoarseness, and much danger is lurking in the bronchial pipes. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is a prompt remedy for the irritation, and cures all throat and lung difficulties.

The Cheapest medicine in use is Dr. Thomas' Edectric Oil, because so very little of it is required to effect a cure. For croup, diphtheria, and diseases of the lungs and throat, whether used for bathing the chest or throat, for taking internally or inhaling, it is a matchless compound.

Headache.

If you suffer from Headache you may be sure that your Stomach, Liver or Blood is at fault, and perhaps all three are combined in bad action. If so, the best remedy is Bardock Blood Bitters, which cures Headache by regulating the organic action generally.
