DIED FOR ME.

Among the war records of America one incident is told which is worth repeating.

After the battle of Chickamuga a man, roughly dressed, was seen standing by a grave in the Soldiers' Cemetery at Nashville. Tears were rolling down his cheeks, but every now and then he wiped them away, and looked steadily at the painted board which stood at the head of the grave.

'Your son sir?' a sympathetic bystander asked.

'No, not mine. He lived in our town, though, and I came to find his grave.'

'A relation, then—a friend, perhaps?'

'My neighbor's son,' said the farmer. Then, seeing the interested look on the questioner's face, he added, 'I'd like to tell you all. I'm a poor man with seven small children and a sickly wife. I was drafted for this war. I couldn't hire a substitute. I was in great trouble, for that meant starvation to the poor things at home, none of whom could work for their living, not to speak of carrying on the farm. The morning I ought to have left them, my neighbor's son came and offered to go in my stead. Said he, 'I've no one dependent on me, and you have.' So he went, and was killed in action. This is his grave. I felt I must come and put those words over his head.'

On the painted head-board 'Died for me' was roughly traced under the name of the sleeping soldier. The tears and distress of the survivor testified to his gratitude, but most of all he showed his appreciation of the act of love by taking a long and weary journey to set up this outward mark of his feelings.

Reader, was it too much, think you, to do for a fellow man? You are indignant at the bare idea. Why, he died for him, you answer. And has not the Perfect Man died for you? What have you done to show your gratitude to Him? Have you confessed before the world your thankfulness to Him?

Have you kept holy the day of His death?

Have you regularly commemorated the sacrifice at His altar, as He bade men to do?

Oh! if you have done none of these things, you are surely most ungrateful, forgetful and neglectful of One who 'died for you.'—Selected.

We have received from Mr. F. C. Wurtelo, of Quebec, a copy of a Monograph of the English Cathedral of Quebec, written by him, and read as a paper before the Literary and Historical Society on the 10th March, 1891, and now issued in pamphlet form. It certainly is most interesting, and furnishes information in regard to the early history of the Church in Quebec, and as to the foundation of the Cathedral there, which will be of value to all.

A full description of the Church itself, and of the means by which it was erected is given, and much other interesting information.

We understand that copies of the pamphlet may be obtained from Mr. Wurtelo, or Mr. W. Drysdale, Montreal, at 60c. each.
