oig game for Bears

Jim Donlevy won't pull punches when he's queried bout the importance of aturday's game with the eague-leading University Manitoba Bisons. The match is et for Varsity Stadium at 2 p.m.

"It could mean the eason for us," opines Donlevy, 'In a sense, it's a championship

Donlevy expects the Bisons will attack the Bears befence along the ground with heir two big threats, fullback pon Kates and halfback Bobroogood. A former Golden Bear, Kates was 'traded' to the Bisons, while Toogood, who has ittle trouble living up to his hame, averaged a shopping 8.9 yards a carry last year'.

"All they do is run at ou," says Donlevy.

Tight end Don Savich and tackle Brian Moen will be missing from the Bears, Savich being sidelined this season with a knee injury. "I'm very upset about his injury, because Don was playing so well."

Donlevy expects no further changes.

Bear players of the week

Halfback Kim Ziola really made alumni players feel their age Saturday as he rambled for 202 yards on ten carries and scored touchdowns of 92 and 71 yards. Last year, Kim set scoring and receiving records in the Manitoba--Saskatchewan junior football league while a member of the Canadian champion Regina Rams. "He's starting to come around to the form that made him an all star with the Rams," comments Jim Donlevy, A defensive back with the Manitoba Bisons two seasons ago, Ziola is 5-10 and weighs 170 pounds. Kim is a 20-year-old science student.

Dave Wray is gradually assuming the role of defensive leader with the Golden Bears despite having spent the past two seasons on the sidelines with injuries. A tough, hard-nosed outside linebacker, Dave played year with British Columbia Lions in the CFL, but was cut on the eve of the 1970 football season after having enrolment trouble at UBC. His honeymoon just prior to training camp contributed to his slow start. Dave, a second- year law student, stands 5-10 and tips the scales at 195 pounds. Dave is 24 years old.

intramural sport

For the past four years, Bob Brust has won the Intramural Turkey Trot, a 2.3 mile cross country race. However, Bob is no longer on campus. Rumour has it he has started his medical career at the Mayo Clinic in New York, so a new Turkey Trot champion will be crowned Saturday. Post entries will be accepted until 9:45 in front of the Jubilee Auditorium with the race beginning at 10 a.m. Turkeys will be awarded to the top three finishers and to the unit having the most entries.

There may be only one person on campus who can shoot straighter than that water fountain on the eighth floor of the General Services Building; and he is Mike Skinner of MacKenzie Hall. Mike shot 204 of a possible 216 points to capture first place in the 'A' class archery Saturday. Ken Wallace of Dentistry took class 'B' honors. Dentistry won the team title, followed by Law.

The men's intramural golf tournament was also held last weekend and though the temperatures weren't too hot, Jan Willey of Engineering was.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK- The first intramural athlete of the week is no stranger to intramural sports. He is Glen Elliot, last year's top intramural competitor. Glen, a third-year law student, scored all of Law's points-two touchdowns and three singles-in their win over Kappa Sigma in flag football. Glen also competed in a losing cause for the Law lacrosse team and entered the A archery tournament last Saturday.
