

Raiders still sliding in touch football loop

The Budget Rent-A-Car Raiders lost another Mississauga Touch Football League game last weekend and almost lost a third.

Raiders, who were riding a 61-game league winning streak until a couple of weeks ago, lost 25-23 to the National Gym Redskins. Raiders held on to edge CARS Flying Circus 23-20.

The Raiders are now tied with the Redskins for second place in the first division. Both teams have 6-2 records.

The McColls of Mississauga dominated the first annual Ontario national white water canoeing championships on the Credit River in Streetville Saturday, both in numbers and performance. Jeff (above) won the K-1 downriver, A and B class, Jim won C-1 and Jay placed second, Joanne and Rob Bell won C-2 mixed and Jim and Bob Fairly placed second in C-2. Burlington's Harry Hewick won K-1, C and D, Marion Hewick won K-1, women's, and David Hewick won K-1 short. Mark Brown and Brent McCaffery won C-2. Twelve competitors took part.

Baker's goal wins Cup

MacDonald Shell edged F.K.J. Sealant 1-0 on Patrick Baker's penalty shot to win the Erin Mills squirt house league cup. In the atom final, Mississauga Honda defeated Inter Van Service 2-0. Mike Augustini and Gawain Bolton scored the Honda goals.
