Mr. L. L. L. Golden,
Apt. 64, 645 Madison Ave.,
New York 22, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Golden:

Just received your letter of 19th.
Everything is fine in it except the reference to your own discouraging effort to find a suitable position in the United States.

You mention Harry Price. I was talking to him yesterday about you, and I can assure you he is very interested; and further I can assure you that there are not many who are as resourceful as he is in thinking out some way to help a friend.
Have called him up this morning since receipt of your letter, and we are going to keep our heads close together on the subject, and his will probably be more useful than mine.

Very sincerely yours,

AM/E.
