PART VII

Enforcement

700.(1) Every Selective Service Officer, and every person authorized by the Director to act as a Selective Service Inspector, may for the purpose of enforcing these regulations

- (a) enter at all reasonable times any premises or place, other than a private dwelling house not being a work-shop, where he has reasonable grounds for supposing that any person is employed;
- (b) make such examination or inquiry as may seem to him to be necessary for ascertaining whether these regulations are being complied with;
- (c) examine orally, either alone or in the presence of any other person, as he thinks fit, with respect to any matter arising under these regulations, every person whom he finds in any such premises or place or whom he has reasonable cause to believe to be or to have been in employment and may require every person so examined to sign a declaration of the truth of his statements on such examination; and
- (d) exercise such other powers as, in the opinion of the Director, are necessary for enforcing these regulations.

(2) The occupier of any premises or place, other than a private dwelling house not being a workshop, any person having other persons in his employment, the servants and agents of any such occupier or person, and any employed person shall furnish to any Selective Service Officer or Inspector all such information, and he shall produce for inspection all such books, documents, papers and records, as the Selective Service Officer or Inspector may reasonably require.

(3) Every Selective Service Officer and Selective Service Inspector shall, on applying for admission to any premises or place under this section, have in his possession and produce if so required a certificate of his appointment signed by or on behalf of the Director.

701. For the purposes of these regulations and of any proceedings taken thereunder, any notice or other communication sent through His Majesty's mails pursuant to these regulations shall be presumed, until the contrary is proven, to have been received by the addressee within eight clear days of the
