Circular C. 103. My telegram Circular C. 93, October 12th. While no general celebration of Armistice Day is being held it has been thought appropriate that wreaths such as have been laid in past years on behalf of various Ministers etc., should be placed on Cenotaph in London again this year. This will accordingly be done between 11.30 A.M. and 12 noon with as little ceremony or publicity as possible.
