My dear Willie:

Write that the Army Medical Corps will leave here on the 29th of November. I'll write you by the Atlantic. At that rate they will not go to Ottawa, so that, if you wish to say goodbye, you may have to go to Montreal, or you will separate. I am sorry, if this is so, because I will have some time spent in your company with you at Ottawa, & you would not have such any time away from the city. I am certain that it is in the morning before. The morning after please have a weekend, & it is quite likely, I am sure, that they will see Steve on November.
Subscribes with love,
Father.

REPETITION
