

have been much more tired had you had weather like last year.
I had a visit from a Mrs. Pearson last week. I don't know who she was, but she gave me a very nice about some property which should belong to the bank of Ottawa. After a long year, I asked her what all the talk was looking up to, she said she thought if I would write to you I tell you about it, you might be able to do something which would get the property to the bank. I told

Mr. Bogatai, S.O. but will only be gone about three weeks.
We are expecting Jean?
Her family tomorrow or Friday, to spend a week with us.
I am so glad you have been able to get away for a little holiday, I hope it will do you as much good as our stay in Hampshire did us.
The weather here has been miserable, but at least, it hasn't been hot! You were certainly lucky in the conclusion, for you would
