

May: You have heard what our steward said. I think that it would be best to do as he says. I asked how often you see the doctor. May said twice a week if need be. I asked how much food ^{was bought?} he said you need for a pound box and split it in half, and in the winter a good time so as to get the benefit of it. I was saying to May was saying something of this has been a helpfull day when I heard him say, Oh here comes Sir Wellfred. - Goodbye

Sir Wellfred

I am here. I would like to tell you how much I have appreciated all the kindness extended to me and lady Laurier. Lady Laurier has been quite put out about your having people having unceremonious to go to you about the house, as to suggest anything of the kind they have. You know what you meant to each of us when our house was in Ottawa. In Ottawa you been up to work in our thoughts and affection: regard. I felt for you as I did because of the support you gave me, and the stand you took when I was in power the good you did in your work, and the ambition you had to serve others, all that is that you can
 - never to fill your soul with sweetness (or to give of sweetness from your soul. keep all your sweetness of nature have determination with it, be affable as you can, be with determination - religiously and politically I need be with you from now on. I presume ^{or predict} that in a week and a half you will be further on. I must see already that he has made a mistake. That you ^{the killer of} have been, he knows that now. Call on me and say I need you every hour and the friends who are helping he will come and help you - God has been good to you
