The following Declarations by the Government of Canada were deposited December 30 and 31, 1980:

DECLARATIONS OF NON-APPLICATION

The following declarations apply to Canada's acceptance of Agreement on Government Procurement with respect to European Economic Community: (a) The Department of Post Office is included in the Canadian list of entities on the understanding that, should it cease to be a Government Department, the provisions of Article IX, paragraph 5(b) of the Agreement on Government Procurement would not apply. Government of Canada does not, therefore, accept the declarations of the European Economic Community concerning the Canadian Post Office.

(b) The Government of Canada will apply the Agreement on Government Procurement to the European Economic Community on a provisional basis until such time as the European Economic Community applies the Agreement definitively with respect to Canada.

DECLARATIONS UNDER ARTICLE IX, PARAGRAPH 5(b)

The Department of the Post Office is included in the Canadian list of entities on the understanding that, should it cease to be a government department, the provisions of Article IX, paragraph 5(b) of the Agreement on Government Procurement would not apply.
