

(10) The Judges' Library of the Supreme Court of Canada.

(11) The Judges' Libraries of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario.

(12) Each of the County Libraries receiving aid from the Society, and an additional copy to such County Libraries where the County Law Association has fifty or more members who have paid their subscriptions, such additional copy to be supplied from and inclusive of the first volume of the present series of Ontario Law Reports.

77. Upon paying fifteen dollars to the Secretary during Michaelmas Term of any year, any Barrister-at-Law not in arrears in the payment of his Bar Fees and not otherwise entitled, or any Student shall become entitled to receive the numbers of the Ontario Law Reports published by the Society during the ensuing year.

78. The reports of the Supreme Court shall be furnished to all Solicitors who issue their annual certificates for the current year during Michaelmas Term.

79. It shall be the duty of the Editor to determine what decisions ought to be published, to peruse and settle the reports thereof prepared by the Reporters, and to superintend the preparation and publication of such decisions. He shall also make such arrangements with the Judges and Officers of the Courts that a report of all important decisions may be secured, and he shall oversee the whole work of reporting, so as to secure its efficient and prompt execution.

80. The Reporters shall, under the direction of the Editor, attend the Courts personally, and shall prepare a report of each important case, which shall include the argument of counsel whenever practicable, the authorities cited, grouped under the proper heading, and the judgment (whether oral or written), and shall furnish the same without delay to the Editor.
