

Willard, Colonel, a Loyalist, brutal treatment of, i. 43

Witherspoon, Dr., i. 39 and n., ii. 129; his library plundered by Howe's troops, ii. 213

Wolfe, Colonel James, on British infantry, i. 256, 257; scurvy treatment of, by the War Office, i. 270, 271

Writs of Assistance, exasperation caused by, i. 77, 78

Young, Ensign Henry, death of, ii. 334

Young, Capt. Walter, accuses Admiral Arbuthnot of peculation, i. 297 and n., 301 n.; on the treatment of the navy in the West Indies, i. 306

THE END