ODDS AND ENDS.

HOW TO GET ALONG.

Pay as you go.

Never fool in business matters.

Do not kick every one in your path.

Learn to think and act for yourself.

Keep ahead rather than behind the times.

Don't stop to tell stories in business hours.

Have order, system, regularity and promptness.

Use your own brains rather than those of others.

Do not meddle with business you know nothing of.

A man of honour respects his word as he does his bond.

No man can get rich by sitting around stores and saloons.

If you have a place of business, be found there when wanted.

More miles can be made in one day by going steadily than by stopping.

Help others when you can, but never give what you cannot afford because it is fashionable.

Learn to say No. No necessity of snapping it out dog-fashion, but say it firmly and respectfully.

Most of the Complaints peculiar to Females may be promptly benefited and cured by the purifying regulating tonic power of Burdock Blood Bitters.

A tail of misery—The cocktail.

Notice of a peal—A flash of lightning.

When is a lady like a show window? When she takes great pains with her sash.

PUTTING IT DELICATELY.—An Irishman, who had been doing some work for a gentleman, was given a small portion of whiskey. This he speedily swallowed. He then looked at the glass and said, "Can yer honour tell me how they make thim glasses so nate?" The gentleman then gave him the information how glass was blown.

"Arrah, sure, thin," said Paddy, "he must have been mighty short i' the wind that blew that glass."

Sow good thoughts and you will reap good actions.
