

F. 5499

46

932

61.

872/73

8651

In presenting the London Directory to the public, it is a pleasure in acknowledging the assistance of the various departments, offering a work which the public will find of great support of the citizens. Every thing is reliable and competent and the Editor himself previous

The work has been got up in a Directory consists in giving it the possible place.

The Street Directory is a valuable addition to such

Petersville and Westminster and are placed after London

The Miscellaneous information is of much local interest.

In taking leave of their opportunity of returning the Societies and Companies particularly to Mr. Thomas kindly furnished previous tatingly recommend to the their obligations to the Publisher in this undertaking.