GRIP, COMPLETE from No. 7, Vol XIV., January 13, 1880, down to its termination with vol XLI., July, 1893, 3 years being bound in cloth, the remainder in weekly numbers as published, all being nice and clean, 75.00, Toronto, 1880-1893. 1

AN EXCEEDINGLY SCARCE PUBLICATION, two sets only are known to be in existence, one of which found its way into Catalogue No. XXIX., February, 1894, for $275, and will never be offered for sale again. GRIP is decidedly the most clean and the most impressive pictorial history of Canada during the time of its publication, and no complete history of the country can be compiled without consulting its overflowing pages. THE MANY THOUSANDS OF ILLUSTRATIONS are not merely fantastic portraits or grotesque and comic representations of the events of the day, but are SPEAKING LIKENESSES OF MOVING CHARACTERS, suggesting maxims or preaching truths before the time.

BUCKINGHAM goes deliberately through the States, treating of all historically and statistically, of their rise and progress, their manufactures, trade and population, topography, fertility, sources, morals, manners and education. His volumes will be found a storehouse of knowledge."—London Athenaeum.
