

Pull Together!

Man's Work Again—for Canada in good old Peabodys

ASK Bill what he was doing a year ago: Building pontoon-bridges, chasing the fleeing Boche across the rivers he had held three years, straight into Hunland. You KNOW what Bill is doing TO-DAY: He is building real bridges for peace-time GROWTH, the commerce, the prosperity, the new happiness and content of Canada. And it's a man's job. The same boys whom we outfitted with fighting clothes are back on the Job now Fighting the Bigger, Better Battle of Peace in good old Peabodys. Peabody Overalls and Peabody Gloves, worn wherever there's a big job being done by real men.
