Mercantile Summary.

MERCHANTS' week in Halifax takes place about the 24th of September."TRADE has not been so quiet here in twenty years," says the Brantford Expositor.A SHIPMENT of ales and porters to Hong Kong, China, has just been made by the Carling Brewing and Malting Co., of London, Ont.THE firm of A. G. Peuchen & Co., manufacturers of paints in this city, has been merged into a joint stock company under the style of The A. G. Peuchen Co. (limited).AMHERST, N.S., wants a Board of Trade.
There is no reason why a town of 4,500 inhabitants should not have one. It lies in the hands of Amherst's merchants, of whom there are upwards of fifty.THIRTY new buildings are under contract at Oxford, N.S., aggregating a total of $20,000.
This locality is on the line of a new railway running from the Intercolonial near Springhill and New Glasgow.THE Brantford Telegram would like to see the law so changed as to have all debts outlawed after standing three months. Debts are outlawed at the end of six years. Why not, it asks, shorten up the time and make it three months?P. J. GRACE, a country merchant in a moderate way at Huntley, Ont., has assigned.
He began business several years ago with a couple of thousand dollars of capital, but a lack of ability or the experience essential to success.A GENERAL dealer at Hull, Que., A. Perraton, who succeeded A. Watters about a year ago, is in embarrassed shape and has been served with a demand of assignment. Curtailment of business owing to men working short time in the mills is assigned as the cause of his trouble.
