SOULS IN ACTION

Eng. Title: "In the Hands of the Potter"

By HAROLD BEGBIE

No person who has read "Twice-Born Men" can afford to miss this convincing work by the same author. In the first book the instances of conversion were of the elemental unreasoned type; "Souls in Action" deals with cases in which the dynamic change of conversion was completed through struggle on the part of the individual—a progressive struggle of the will, even after the heart had been persuaded, covering days, weeks, and in one case, years. The first book recorded the testimony of men of the humblest classes, some of them the very leas and dregs; "Souls in Action" deals with persons of a higher strata of society, whose natures, being more complex, have in them a greater capacity for intellectual self-distrust. These instances, therefore, bring out in a striking manner the permanent and divine elements of the subtle force.
