MIRACLES

Papers and Sermons by Various Authors, with a Prefatory Note by Rev. H. S. HOLLAND, D.D. 90c.

It is hoped that the various statements made in this book may serve to illustrate the lines on which thought is moving in the mind of those to whom the method and outlook of Mr. Thompson's book "Miracles in the New Testament" appear radically inadequate.

A UNIQUE VOLUME

BOOK OF

Family Worship

Being Selections from Scripture and Prayers for Use in the Home

CHOSEN AND COMPOSED BY

REV. WILLIAM D. LEE

A selection of Scripture with prayer for every day of the week for twenty-six weeks, and worship and prayers for special occasions, also blank Family Record of Marriages, Births, Deaths, etc. This manual of family worship is an effort to supply a need much felt at the present time.

The decline of the practice of having prayers, of setting up the family altar, is a serious question, indeed the present and future welfare of our country depends upon our home life; it must be kept sacred and holy, and the means for the conservation and promotion of it is PRAYER—individual and family prayer.

The KARN CHURCH ORGAN

The Choice of Those Who Know

Those whose business it is to use church organs—the organists—will tell you how superior it is. It has taken a lifetime of thought and study to make it the beautiful instrument it is.

For the Bishop of Winchester's fund for the restoration of the cathedral £3,500 has been subscribed in fifteen days. The total sum collected for the fund during the year is £10,800, against £10,452 in 1910.

At the sale of the Hoe Library in New York last week a Gutenberg Bible of 1455 was bought for £5,500. A copy of the first edition of Queen Elizabeth's Prayer Book (London, 1569), realized £540.

There has been planted in Deal Churchyard an oak commemorative of the Coronation of King George V. There are two other such oaks in the churchyard, one having been planted at the Coronation of King Edward VII., and the other on the death of Mr. Gladstone.

The death occurred recently of Canon Duncan Fraser, who had been rector of South Weald, Brentwood, Essex, for thirty-five years. He had reached the advanced age of ninety-seven. He graduated from Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1837.

The organ of St. Sepulchre's Church, Holborn, London, which is shortly to be restored, is one of the most famous instruments in the country. Built by Renatus Harris about 1667, it is the largest church organ in London, and has over 4,000 pipes. Nearly all the great organists of the past two centuries have played on it.

An effort is being made by the Dean of Norwich to secure for the cathedral a beautiful illuminated Psalter of the fifteenth century, which contains in its calendar a marginal entry of the solemn service held on August 29, 1549, in thanksgiving for the suppression of Kett's rebellion.

In Ceylon—that land of eternal summer—every bush in a tea garden is picked over every week in the year, and you always get it fresh and fragrant in the "SALADA" packages. "SALADA" does not show the dealer as large a profit as other teas, but it gives him, through his customers, more satisfaction.
